5TH QUARTER

SERVING & DEVELOPING TOTAL MOUNTAINEERS

"The 5th Quarter Program provides education and resources needed to develop the Mountaineers student-athletes holistically. Better people make better Mountaineers, and through this program, our players are positioned for success, not only on the playing field, but also in life beyond graduation."

"WE ARE A DEVELOPMENTAL PROGRAM."

-NEAL BROWN

John and Elaine Chambers give $1.6M gift to 5th Quarter Program

WVU Football's 5th Quarter Program is expanding to create unique educational opportunities for select student-athletes thanks to a nearly $1.6 million gift from WVU alumni John and Elaine Chambers. The Chambers Elite Climbers is a supplemental two-year program that provides additional personal and professional growth opportunities to student-athletes chosen through a competitive application process. Each cohort will dive deeper into key areas of interest – entrepreneurship and innovation, technology, financial education and communications – through a variety of educational resources, complete a study-abroad experience and select a West Virginia-focused humanitarian venture to pursue each year.

Serve and Develop Complete Mountaineers ...
Mountain Men Who Will Earn Their Degree.
Earn Football Championships And Earn The Respect Of The Campus and Community.

5TH QUARTER FIVE PILLARS OF DEVELOPMENT

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

WVU FOOTBALL STUDENT-ATHLETES WORK TO DISCOVER AND DEVELOP THEIR PERSONAL BELIEFS, HABITS, MORALS & IDEALS.

NICK MALONE

2022 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD WINNER AS THE PROGRAM'S TOP WALK-ON

"At West Virginia, we don't get treated as a walk-on. The culture here, everybody is one. But being a Morgantown guy, and a walk-on, it's a privilege to earn the Nickolich Award. I'm blessed to get it, and it was a very good feeling when I heard my name called."

GRAESON MALASHEVICH

2021 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD WINNER AS THE PROGRAM'S TOP WALK-ON

"Being a walk-on gave me the opportunity I needed. I knew I had to put in a lot of hard work and effort in every day to earn the respect of my teammates. There are guys from all over the country coming in who were great, were stars at their high school. I just looked for any way and did anything I could to work hard, compete and earn my way."

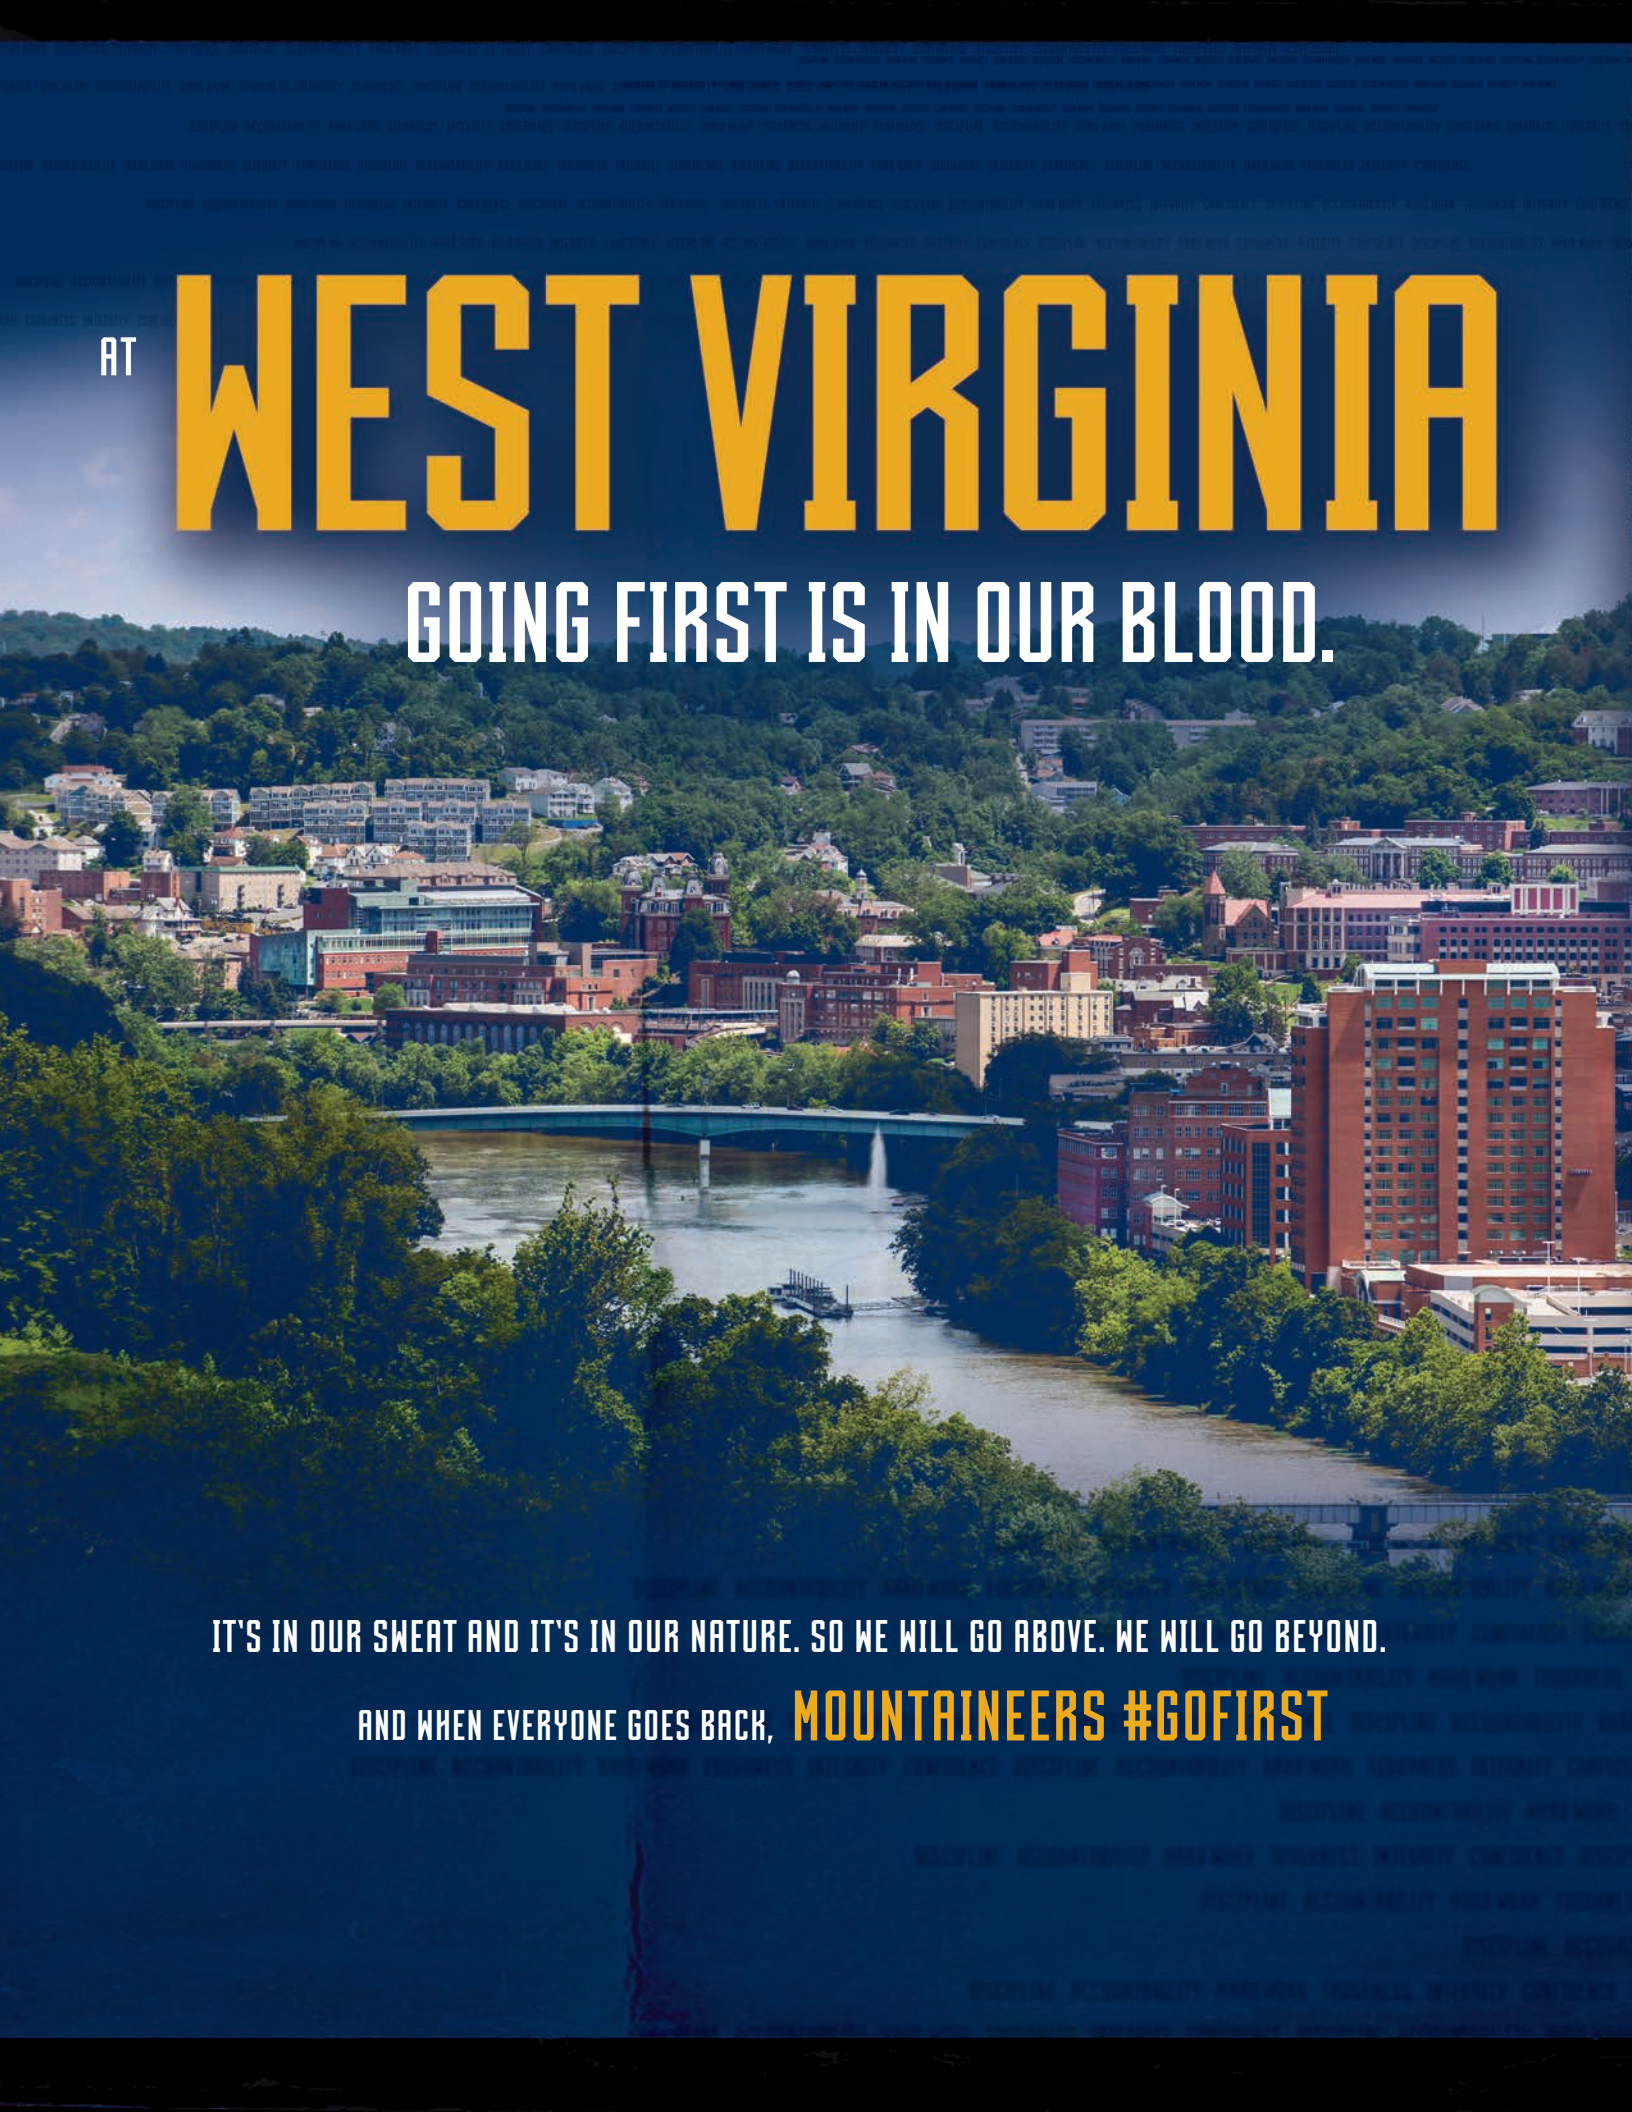
WALK-ONS WHO HAVE EARNED SCHOLARSHIPS UNDER NEAL BROWN

"I know every little boy, in West Virginia, has the same dream, to put on the Old Gold and Blue and have a Flying WV on your chest. It means something different than just that you can play football. I love the game, but I definitely love this state more than I love the game of football. That is what pushed me." – Jake Abbott

NAJEE GOODE

MEMBER OF 2018 SUPER BOWL CHAMPION PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

"When I first walked on, I was just trying to get to the next level. For me, that next level was getting a scholarship and playing hard. After I got there, the next level was to become a consistent starter and a good leader. Once I did that, it was keep improving and maybe have the possibility of playing in the NFL. It was a long shot. I was hoping and praying for it, and I just kept working hard. Now that it's here, I still can't believe it."



AT WEST VIRGINIA
GOING FIRST IS IN OUR BLOOD.
IT'S IN OUR SWEAT AND IT'S IN OUR NATURE. SO WE WILL GO ABOVE. WE WILL GO BEYOND.
AND WHEN EVERYONE GOES BACK, MOUNTAINEERS #GOFIRST

THE FIRST THOUGHT. THE FIRST STEP. THE FIRST BREAKTHROUGH.
AT WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY, WE ARE DETERMINED TO GO FIRST.
IT'S IN OUR BLOOD
IT'S IN OUR SWEAT. AND IT'S IN OUR NATURE.
HERE, GOING FIRST MEANS WE'RE BOLD ENOUGH TO DREAM BIG
TAKE RISKS. IT'S WHY WE GO TO THE EDGE
INSTEAD OF GOING BACK – WE BUILD A BRIDGE AND WE KEEP GOING
SO WE WILL GO ABOVE. WE WILL GO BEYOND.
AND WHEN EVERYONE ELSE GOES BACK
MOUNTAINEERS
GO FIRST.

CHARACTER
Public, land-grant institution, founded in 1867.

RESEARCH CLASSIFICATION
R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity, as described by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education.

ACCREDITATION
WVU is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. Many programs hold specialized accreditation.

GOVERNANCE
The WVU Board of Governors is the University's governing body. The Higher Education Policy Commission in West Virginia is responsible for developing, establishing and overseeing the implementation of a public policy agenda for the state's four-year colleges and universities. E. Gordon Gee is WVU's 24th president.

CAMPUS LOCATIONS AND FACILITIES
The WVU System is a family of distinctive campuses united by a single mission. From the groundbreaking research of our flagship in Morgantown (ranked R1, the highest research category institution) to the student-centered focus of WVU Potomac State College in Keyser to the technology-intensive programs at WVU Institute of Technology in Beckley, we are leveraging our talents and resources to create a better future for West Virginia and the world.

The WVU Institute of Technology in Beckley offers more than 30 majors, including one of the top 100 undergraduate engineering programs in the country, as ranked by U.S. News & World Report.

WVU Potomac State College in Keyser has one of the lowest tuition rates of all the nation's four-year institutions. Offering more than 65 majors, this campus combines the personal attention of a small college with the affordable benefits of a major university.

The WVU System also includes WVU Health Sciences locations in Charleston and Martinsburg, as well as farms and five forests throughout the state and WVU Jackson's Mill State 4-H Camp.

The WVU Morgantown campus is in a town that has been named "No. 1 Small City in America" by BizJournals.com for its exceptional quality of life. Morgantown, population 30,953, was also rated the ninth best college town in America by Business Insider and is within easy traveling distance of Washington, D.C., to the east, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the north, and Cleveland and Columbus, Ohio, to the northwest. Other rankings: Kiplinger.com included Morgantown in their 10 great places to live list; one of "Best Sports Cities" by Sporting News; 5th "Best Small Metro" by Forbes; a "Top 50 College Town" by Parade magazine; and Movoto ranked Morgantown the "#1 Most Exciting Place in West Virginia" for its music, art and nightlife.

STUDENT PROFILE
Fall 2021 WVU System enrollment was 28,000+:

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE
WVU recipients of prestigious scholarships include 25 Rhodes Scholars, 25 Truman Scholars, 46 Goldwater Scholars, 4 George C. Marshall (British) Scholars, 6 Morris K. Udall Scholars, 5 USA Today All-USA College Academic First Team Members (and 11 academic team honorees), 28 Boren Scholars, 72 Gilman Scholars, 70 Fulbright Scholars, 3 Department of Homeland Security Scholars, 36 Critical Language Scholars, one Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Graduate Scholar, 27 National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships and one Schwarzman Scholar.

FACULTY AND STAFF PROFILE
Excellent faculty — 19 of whom have been named Carnegie Foundation Professors of the Year — guide and mentor students. Sixty-six percent of WVU Morgantown classes are taught by full-time instructional faculty.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS
Thirteen Morgantown colleges and schools offer 355+ majors in agriculture, natural resources and design; applied and human sciences; arts and sciences; business and economics; creative arts; dentistry; engineering and mineral resources; law; media; medicine; nursing; pharmacy; public health. Hundreds of distance education and online classes are available.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
Students can choose from among 500+ student organizations or participate in an active intramural program and a variety of club sports.

SERVICE AND LEARNING
The Center for Service and Learning develops and organizes service learning and volunteer opportunities for students and faculty. WVU earned the Carnegie Foundation's Community Engagement Classification — joining only six percent of all universities. It is the only institution in West Virginia the foundation recognizes for its community engagement.

PARENTS CLUB
The Mountaineer Parents Club, with 20,000-plus members, connects parents and families with the student experience.

ALUMNI
Chartered in 1873, the WVU Alumni Association is made up of more than 210,000+ graduates worldwide in some 135 nations.

LIBRARIES
The WVU Libraries encompass seven libraries statewide. Facilities in Morgantown include the Downtown Campus Library, Evansdale Library, Health Sciences Library, Law Library and the West Virginia and Regional History Center. Onsite collections include over 1.8 million books, 1.2 million e-books and over 170,000 satisfied users.

ADMISSION AND APPLICATION TIMELINE
Our test-optional policy means that students can apply for undergraduate admission without an ACT or SAT score. However, we do encourage that students submit scores if available and offer the option to submit after receiving a decision. WVU superscores and offers multiple options for submitting test scores. In place of test scores, emphasis is placed on the following for test-optional applicants: cumulative and core GPA, meeting academic requirements, rigor of high school curriculum, college preparatory coursework and intended major. Students have until June 1, whether applying regular admission or test optional, to submit updated academic credentials, including test scores and transcripts, for merit scholarship eligibility. Applications are processed beginning Aug. 15 for admission the following fall. WVU has a rolling admissions policy, and there is no official application deadline.

HEAD COACH

NEAL BROWN

Neal Brown is in his fourth year as the head coach at West Virginia.

It's a proven fact that you win with people, and no one knows that better than Brown. He has a commitment to investing time and resources in his staff and players, mentoring and preparing them to carry out the mission of Mountaineer Football, not only on the field but off of it as well.

One of the key areas in which his commitment is paying huge dividends is recruiting. Brown has taken a young and depleted roster, established a strong foundation and has it heading in an upward direction toward the future.

Since arriving in Morgantown in January 2019, Brown has covered a lot of territory representing Mountaineer Football as its chief ambassador, ensuring the great story about his program is told to everyone.

In his first three full classes, the average signee star rating has been among the best in the program's history, highlighted by the signing of 12 four-star recruits during that time. The program has landed multiple targets after beating out many high-level schools, and it has landed the top in-state recruits each year in coveted prospects, Zach Frazier, Wyatt Milum and Corbin Page.

The 2021 class had the highest average star rankings (3.25) according to Rivals since the start of the company, and the 2023 class is currently ranked No. 13 nationally, which would be the best in the Internet era.

With the landscape of college football changing more than ever, Brown has had to evaluate and give even more attention to his role as the CEO, overseeing the big picture, managing all areas of the program and making sure all areas concerning the players and staff are accomplished. This past offseason, Brown showed his investment in his staff by bringing in offensive coordinator Graham Harrell to be more hands-on with the offense and further its development.

Brown continues to support and champion program leadership by the players, emphasizing a dedication to the individual student-athlete. His mission is in the development of each player as a complete person, not only on the field, but off, and for each to continuously build themselves and their brand to make a difference in the world after their football career is finished.

One of the first player initiatives that Brown implemented for the team was the 5th Quarter Program to assist in the development of the total player, not only on the field, but for life beyond graduation. The pillars of the program are character development, leadership development, real life, social responsibility and career development. With the name, image and likeness legislation enacted in July 2021, Brown did his due diligence in advance to ensure that his players were prepared, no matter how involved the process becomes in the future.

Another component of the 5th Quarter Program is the Bridge program. Its goal is to introduce the student-athletes to the college experience when they first enter WVU and give them their final training before they embark into life after graduation.

The 2021 squad finished with six wins and had its share of positives, including earning a bowl bid to the Guaranteed Rate Bowl, its second in a row under Brown. WVU has earned a spot in a bowl game in 18 of the last 20 years and is one of only 15 programs in the nation to accomplish that feat. Running back Leddie Brown rushed for 1,000 yards for the second year in a row, and WVU was fourth in the Big 12 in average passing yards per game (247.9). The Mountaineer defense finished No. 5 nationally in red-zone defense, No. 18 in the fewest first downs allowed and No. 29 in third-down defense.

The Mountaineers defeated No. 15 Virginia Tech, marking the highest-ranked win of the Brown era and also defeated No. 22 Iowa State to tie for the most wins against ranked teams in a season since 2007.

West Virginia had a program-best 24 student-athletes named to the Academic All-Big 12 Teams, safety Sean Mahone was a finalist for the William Campbell Trophy, the academic Heisman, and he earned a spot on the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Team. Kicker Casey Legg was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza National Kicking Award and WVU had nine players named to one of three postseason Big 12 all-conference teams by media organizations.

Center Zach Frazier was named to the Walter Camp Football Foundation and American Football Coaches Association's All-America teams, and tackle Wyatt Milum was named to three freshman All-America teams. Defensive lineman Dante Stills was named an All-Big 12 First Team honoree, and Frazier earned a spot on the second team.

Brown's Record at West Virginia: 17-18 (3 years)
Overall Record: 52-34 (7 Years)

The 2020 season was Brown's most challenging season to date, testing his ability, not only as a coach, but as a leader. He was forced to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic since mid-March, which didn't allow for spring practice or offseason workouts and skill instruction, while social unrest was at a high level nationally during the summer.

Even though the program constantly was forced to deal with the effects and protocols of COVID-19 during the season, the Mountaineers stayed the course, finishing the season 6-4 overall and 4-4 in the Big 12. Brown made his first bowl appearance as the coach of West Virginia against Army in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, winning the game, 24-21.

Five players earned All-America honors, led by Darius Stills, who was the school's first Consensus All-American since 2006 and 12th in school history. Tony Fields II, Tykee Smith and Dante Stills were named to at least one All-America team, and freshmen Zach Frazier and Akheem Mesidor were named to Freshman All-America teams. In April, Fields was drafted by the Cleveland Browns to extend WVU's string of consecutive years of having at least one player selected in the NFL Draft since 2008, while five players signed free-agent contracts.

Eight players were named to the All-Big 12 Conference postseason teams, led by first-team honorees Fields II, also defensive newcomer of the year, Darius Stills, also defensive lineman of the year, and Leddie Brown, a first-team running back.

The Mountaineers finished the 2019 season with a 5-7 mark, in what was called a transitional year. WVU finished the regular season winning two of the final three games, at Kansas State and at TCU, and had a 3-3 mark on the road, including a 3-2 road record in the Big 12 Conference.

Five of Brown's players were named to All-Big 12 postseason teams, and Colton McKivitz was named the Big 12's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year. McKivitz earned spots on two All-America teams - Walter Camp Football Foundation's Second Team and the Associated Press' Third Team, and Tykee Smith was named a freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. McKivitz played in the Reese's Senior Bowl and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Brown, one of six FBS coaches to win 10 or more games in 2016, 2017 and 2018, was named WVU's 35th head football coach on Jan. 5, 2019.

He spent the previous four years as the head coach at Troy University (2015-18), compiling a 35-16 record, including 3-0 in bowl games. In his final three seasons, the Trojans posted a 31-8 record (.795), tying for the highest winning percentage nationally among non-Power 5 schools.

Before Brown left after the 2018 season, Troy had won 17 of its last 20 games and 22 of its last 26 games. After directing the Trojans to the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Championship, Brown was honored as the league's coach of the year.

During his highly successful tenure at Troy, Brown's signature wins included a 24-21 victory in 2017 at then-No. 22 LSU in Baton Rouge, which snapped the Tigers' 49-game non-conference home winning streak, and a 24-19 win at Nebraska on Sept. 15, 2018. Also impressive was his team's narrow 30-24 loss at eventual 2016 national champion Clemson.

In 2018, Troy finished 10-3, including a victory over Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Alabama. The Trojans finished 7-1 in conference play and won five of their last six games.

The 2017 campaign featured an 11-win season for Troy, including a win over North Texas in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans once again finished with a 7-1 conference mark, earning Brown his first conference championship. Troy finished the season with the 27th most votes in the final Amway Coaches Poll, marking the highest final ranking by a Sun Belt Conference squad in league history.

Troy faced seven bowl teams and posted a 6-1 mark in those games. Additionally, the Trojans played three conference or conference division champions – Boise State (Mountain West), Akron (MAC/East) and North Texas (C-USA West).

Troy finished 10-3 in 2016, including a 6-2 mark in the Sun Belt and a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl. The Trojans became the first Sun Belt Conference school to ever open a season with eight wins in its first nine games, and they became the first league school to appear in a major top 25 poll, checking in at No. 25 in the Associated Press' Nov. 13 poll. Additionally, Brown's 2016 squad tied for the best turnaround in the country (six wins).

Prior to Brown's first season at Troy in 2015, he spent two years (2013-14) as the offensive coordinator under Mark Stoops at Kentucky. Under his direction, he led the Wildcats to some new heights on the offensive side of the football. The Wildcats posted more than 440 yards of total offense in three Southeastern Conference games in 2014, its highest total since 2001.

The Wildcats totaled 380 yards or more of total offense in their first three SEC games in 2014 – Florida, Arkansas and South Carolina – marking the first time a UK team had done so since 1998. Kentucky scored 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play in 2014.

The two years prior to Brown being named offensive coordinator, Kentucky had a combined 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play.

He also spent three years at Texas Tech (2010-12) as the offensive coordinator after his first stint at Troy as an assistant coach from 2006-09.

As Texas Tech's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the Red Raiders ranked in the nation's top-seven teams in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense, having increased production in all three categories each year since 2010. TTU finished the 2012 season second nationally in passing with 355.9 yards per game, 13th in total offense at 495.4 yards per game and 20th in scoring with 37.5 points per game.

The 2012 campaign was an expansion of the success from 2011, when Texas Tech ranked 13th nationally in total offense at 470.6 yards per game. The Red Raiders lit the scoreboard at a tune of 33.8 points per contest. In his first season in Lubbock, Brown's offense notched 460.2 yards of total offense per game, including 318.9 passing, and scored at a 33.1-point clip as Tech went 8-5 and won the TicketCity Bowl.

At Troy, Brown was the inside receivers coach the first two years (2006-07) with the Trojans before transitioning to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2008-09. Troy won four Sun Belt Conference titles and appeared in three bowl games during Brown's initial tenure.

He began his coaching career with one-year stints at UMass (2003), Sacred Heart (2004) and Delaware (2005).

At Delaware, Brown served as wide receivers coach, starting three freshman wideouts as the Blue Hens went 6-5.

In 2004, Brown coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Sacred Heart, boasting the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference.

In 2003, he was the tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at Massachusetts, helping the Minutemen win a share of the Atlantic-10 championship and a berth in the FCS playoffs.

Brown was a wide receiver at Kentucky for three years (1998-2000) before finishing his career at UMass in 2001-02. He was a member of two bowl teams with the Wildcats and was named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

While at UMass, he was an Atlantic 10 All-Academic honoree and an NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Directors' Academic All-Star team selection.

Brown graduated from UMass with a bachelor's degree in business management in 2002 and earned his master's degree in business administration in 2005.

Born in Louisville, Kentucky, Brown grew up in Bardstown, Kentucky, before moving to Danville, Kentucky, where he was an all-state wide receiver at Boyle County High School, finishing his career as the No. 2 receiver in state history.

Brown and his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Adalyn and Anslee, and a son, Dax.

MATT MOORE

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Line
@CoachMooreWVU

Matt Moore is in his fourth year on the Mountaineer staff as offensive line caoch and third year as the assistant head coach.

In 2021, the offensive line cleared the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in Leddie Brown for the second straight year. Center Zach Frazier earned All-America second team honors by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and the American Football Coaches Association, and tackle Wyatt Milum was named to three different freshman All-America teams. Frazier earned All-Big 12 Conference Second Team honors by the league head coaches, and guard Doug Nester was named to the All-Big 12 Second Team by PFF College.

In 2020, despite having to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic, West Virginia had one of the most improved offenses in the nation in terms of total yards, showing gains of more than 60 yards rushing per game, almost 30 yards passing a game, more than 90 yards of total offense and almost seven more points a game.

His offensive line had a productive year with Leddie Brown rushing for 1,010 yards and nine touchdowns and Jarret Doege throwing for more than 2,500 yards and 14 touchdowns. Four of Moore's offensive linemen earned postseason honors in 2020. Senior guard Mike Brown earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors, Chase Behrndt was an All-Big 12 Fourth Team selection by Phil Steele, Brandon Yates was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection and Zach Frazier earned Freshman All-America honors.

In Moore's first year with the offensive line, left tackle Colton McKivitz earned Walter Camp and Associated Press All-American honors and was named the Big 12 Conference's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year. The All-Big 12 First Team honoree played in the Reese's Senior Bowl in Mobile, Alabama, participated in the NFL Player Combine in Indianapolis, Indiana, and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

Moore joined the football coaching staff as the Mountaineers' co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in January 2019. Moore came with WVU coach Neal Brown after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for four years at Troy (2015-18). He spent two years on the offensive staff at Texas Tech in 2010-11 and was on the staff with Brown at Troy in 2006.

In 2018, the Trojans finished 10-3 and tied for first place in the Sun Belt Conference East Division. Seven players from the Trojan offense earned All-Sun Belt Conference recognition, including three first-team selections.

The 2017 squad finished 11-2, won the Sun Belt Conference Championship and had a signature win at No. 22 LSU, snapping the Tigers' 49-game non-conference home winning streak. Moore's offensive line finished No. 6 nationally in offensive line efficiency and No. 12 in fewest sacks allowed.

Four Trojan offensive linemen earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors, including left tackle Antonio Garcia, who was the highest selected offensive lineman in conference history, No. 85 overall in the NFL draft by the New England Patriots.

Moore's offense led the Sun Belt in scoring offense in 2016, and finished No. 2 in the league in passing offense and total offense. Troy finished 10-3 and earned its first top-25 national ranking in school and conference history.

The Trojans also tied for the nation's lead in best win improvement from the previous year. Troy placed six offensive players on All-Sun Belt teams, including four first-team selections.

Prior to Moore's first season at Troy, he spent the previous two years as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Louisiana Tech. In 2014, the Bulldogs won the Conference USA Western Division Championship and earned a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

Moore also spent time at Middle Tennessee (OL/2012), Texas Tech (OL/2007-11) and Troy (OL/2006). He began his coaching career at the high school level, producing successful runs in Georgia and Alabama.

While at Middle Tennessee, the Blue Raider offensive line ranked No. 2 nationally in fewest sacks allowed, and Moore was nominated for the Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the nation.

His Texas Tech offensive line paved the way for the Red Raiders to score 28 rushing touchdowns in 2008, second most in school history. The Red Raiders led the country in passing offense, registering 5,371 yards and were No. 4 in total offense with 6,903 yards.

With Brown and Moore on the Texas Tech staff together in 2010, the Red Raiders finished No. 7 nationally in passing, No. 15 in total offense and No. 23 in scoring offense. The following year, the Red Raiders ranked No. 7 in passing, No. 13 in total offense and No. 22 in scoring offense.

Moore's career began as the head coach and running backs coach at Pickens High in Jasper, Georgia, from 1997-98, before spending the next six years as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at perennial powerhouse Hoover High School in Hoover, Alabama. Moore helped lead the Buccaneers to a 77-7 record and three consecutive Class 6A state titles.

Moore also served as head coach at North Gwinnett High School in Suwanee, Georgia, before beginning his collegiate coaching career at Troy.

A native of Canton, Georgia, Moore played at Valdosta State, starting 34 games at left guard from 1991-94. He earned All-Gulf South Conference First-Team honors as a senior.

Moore graduated from Valdosta State in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education.

He and his wife, Kelly, have three daughters, Tanner, Reece and Sutton.

GRAHAM HARRELL

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks
@CoachHarrellWVU

Graham Harrell is in his first year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the offensive coordinator and the quarterbacks coach. Harrell came to WVU after serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at USC for the past three years (2019-21).

In 2021, USC led the Pac-12 and was No. 17 nationally in passing offense (298.3) and red-zone offense (.902), No. 20 in third-down conversion percentage and No. 24 in total offense (443.9). Receiver Drake London was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year, earned a spot on several All-America teams and was a top-10 NFL draft pick.

In 2020, USC's passing offense ranked No. 11 nationally (first in Pac-12) at 319.3. Quarterback Kedon Slovis made All-Pac-12 first team while ranking in the top 20 in completions (first at 29.5), passing yards (sixth at 320.2), total offense (No. 13 at 310.7) and completion percentage (No. 18 at .670), all tops in the Pac-12. Wide receiver Amon-Ra St. Brown also was an All-Pac-12 first teamer.

In Harrell's first year at USC in 2019, the Trojan offense averaged 455.4 total yards (335.8 passing) and 32.5 points—significant improvements from 2018, when the figures were 382.6, 249.1 and 26.1—while ranking in the top-25 in completion percentage, passing offense, passing efficiency, total offense, third down conversions and first downs. The 2019 Trojans also set school season pass marks for total passing yards (4,365), completion percentage (71.0%), completions (365) and attempts (514).

Under Harrell's tutelage, Slovis was a Freshman All-America first teamer and the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year,

He completed a school-record and NCAA freshman record 71.9% of his passes for a USC frosh record 3,502 yards with 30 TDs, including a school-record 515 passing yards against UCLA (one of a USC record four games with 400-plus passing yards), to rank in the top-20 in completion percentage, passing yards, completions, passing efficiency, passing TD and total offense (his 167.9 passing efficiency rating was a USC record).

Michael Pittman Jr., who won the 2019 Pop Warner College Football Award and was a finalist for the Biletnikoff and Witten Awards, was in the top 20 in receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs.

Prior to his three-year stint at USC, Harrell produced back-to-back top-25 offenses, as the offensive coordinator at North Texas.

After inheriting an offense that ranked in the nation's bottom 25 in scoring, passing and total offense in 2015, he helped the Mean Green improve statistically in each category in 2016, including by 9.6 points per game. Then in 2017, North Texas was No. 19 nationally in scoring (35.5), No. 21 in passing (291.9) and No. 24 in total offense (455.1).

In 2018, UNT ranked 12th in passing (306.8), 20th in total offense (460.5) and 26th in scoring (34.6). North Texas also rushed for more than 150 yards a game in 2017 and 2018. UNT won nine games each in Harrell's last two seasons and qualified for bowl games all three years that he was on staff (2016 Heart of Dallas, 2017 New Orleans, 2018 New Mexico) after UNT only played in one bowl the previous 11 seasons.

Harrell came to UNT from Washington State, where he worked for head coach Mike Leach as the outside receivers coach in 2015 after serving as an offensive analyst in 2014. The 2015 Cougars led the nation in passing offense (389.2) and won eight games, including the Sun Bowl.

Harrell was a record-setting quarterback for Leach at Texas Tech from 2005-08, finishing his career with an NCAA-record 134 touchdown passes, the second-most career yards in NCAA history (15,793) and the third-highest career passing average (351.0). He also set NCAA career marks for pass completions average (31.2), as well as most games gaining 400-plus passing yards (20), games gaining 400-plus total yards (21) and seasons gaining 4,000-plus total yards (3). His career average of 486.3 passing yards against Texas was an NCAA record against one opponent. In each of his three seasons as a starter, his passing yardage figures placed in the top-25 all-time at the FBS level (21st in 2006 with 4,555 yards, second in 2007 with 5,705 and sixth in 2008 with 5,111) and he was the first player with a pair of 5,000-yard passing seasons.

In 2008, he was first team All-America, finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting, won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, was a finalist for the Walter Camp and Davey O'Brien Awards and was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete. His 5,111 passing yards led the nation, and he threw 45 touchdowns with only nine interceptions while completing 70.6% of his aerials. Texas Tech went 11-2, including a victory over No. 1 Texas, and played in the Cotton Bowl in 2008.

Harrell played for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2009 and served as a quality control assistant at Oklahoma State for several months in 2010, before heading back to continue his NFL career. He played three years with the Green Bay Packers (2010-12), including on the 2010 Super Bowl XLV championship team and had a brief stint with the New York Jets in 2013.

He played for his father, Sam, at Ennis High, throwing for Texas career records of 12,532 yards and 167 touchdowns. He led Ennis to the state Class 4A title as a 2001 sophomore. As a senior in 2003, he set state records for season passing yards, completions and touchdowns (4,825, 334, 67).

Inducted into the Texas Tech Hall of Fame in 2020, Harrell earned his bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 2007.

Harrell, and his wife, Brittney, have a 6-year-old son, Hawk and a daughter, Mia. Harrell's brother, Clark, played quarterback at Tulsa (2007) and Abilene Christian (2008-10). Clark and his other brother, Zac, are now high school football coaches in Texas.

JORDAN LESLEY

Defensive Coordinator
Outside Linebackers
@CoachLesley_WVU

Jordan Lesley is in his fourth year on the Mountaineer Football coaching staff and third year as the defensive coordinator. The two-time Broyles Award nominee coaches the outside linebackers for the second year after working with the defensive line his first two seasons.

Under Lesley's guidance, the Mountaineer defense competes each year as one of the best units in the Big 12 Conference as well as the nation. Fifth-year senior defensive tackle Dante Stills was an All-Big 12 Conference First Team honoree and four other players were named to the all-conference third team by various organizations.

WVU finished No. 5 nationally in red-zone defense, an improvement of 67 spots from the year before, was No. 18 in fewest defensive first downs allowed and in fourth-down percentage, No. 29 in third-down defense (.347), No. 37 in total defense (350.1) and No. 39 in tackles for loss (6.5), an improvement of nine spots from the 2020 season.

Defensive tackle Dante Stills was No. 4 in the Big 12 in tackles for loss and No. 10 in sacks, while defensive end Taijh Alston was No. 15 in sacks and No. 16 in tackles for loss. Linebacker Josh Chandler-Semedo was the third-leading tackler in the league (8.5) and safety Sean Mahone was No. 18 (6.2). Cornerback Charles Woods was No. 13 in passes defended (8) and Daryl Porter Jr. was No. 14 (7). Woods was No. 4 in fumbles recovered and safety Saint McLeod was No. 8 in forced fumbles.

The WVU defense had an outstanding year in 2020, leading the nation in pass defense and ranking No. 4 in in total defense (291.4), No. 21 in scoring defense (20.5), No. 23 in interceptions (11), No. 24 in pass efficiency defense (121.52) and No. 28 in rushing defense (131.8).

Darius Stills was named the program's first Consensus All-American since 2006 and 12th in school history. He was the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year, an All-Big 12 Conference First Team lineman for the second straight year and was signed as a free agent by the Las Vegas Raiders. Over his final two years, he finished with 10.5 sacks and 21 tackles for loss.

Akheem Mesidor was an All-Big 12 Conference Second Team honoree and also earned freshman All-America honors, and Dante Stills earned All-Big 12 Conference Second Team honors by the AP.

In 2019, his defensive line enjoyed a successful season for the Mountaineer defense, finishing No. 25 nationally in sacks and No. 35 in tackles for loss. Defensive linemen Darius and Dante Stills were tied for No. 2 in the Big 12 in sacks and Darius was No. 5 in tackles for loss and Dante was No. 10. The Stills brothers earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, Darius on first team and Dante on second team.

Lesley joined the Mountaineer coaching staff as the defensive line coach in 2019. He came with Brown and after serving as an assistant coach at Troy for three years (2016-18), the first two years as the defensive tackles coach and the 2018 season as the defensive line coach.

From 2016-18, Troy's defense allowed 20.8 points per game, ranking No. 4 nationally among non-power 5 schools. In 2018, the Trojans were ranked No. 10 nationally in sacks, No. 16 in tackles for loss, No. 24 in rushing defense, No. 28 in scoring defense and No. 31 in total defense. Three of Lesley's defensive linemen were named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team, including Trevon Saunders, who earned first-team honors. Troy finished 10-3, tied for first place in the Sun Belt Conference Eastern Division, and defeated Buffalo, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl.

Prior to Troy, Lesley was the defensive coordinator at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba, Mississippi (2013-15), before serving two stints at Northwest Mississippi Community College in Senatobia, Mississippi, first as defensive line coach in 2010 and then as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2012. He also spent two stints at Kilgore College in Kilgore, Texas, first as the linebackers coach from 2007-09, and as the defensive coordinator in 2011. He spent a year as a graduate assistant coach at Troy in 2006.

While at East Mississippi, Lesley's defenses allowed an average of just 10.3 points and 232.1 yards per game as the Lions posted a combined 32-1 record with national titles in 2013 and 2014. Additionally, the Lions tallied 149 quarterback sacks and 57 interceptions in his three seasons.

In his first season at East Mississippi, the Lions recorded an NJCAA-best 67 sacks and finished second nationally with 30 interceptions and by allowing just 9.8 points per game.

The 2012 NWCC squad claimed the school's first bowl victory in 20 years and earned a No. 9 NJCAA final ranking. The 2010 Northwest team posted an undefeated regular season on the way to finishing with a No. 6 national ranking.

Lesley helped lead Kilgore to the 2007 Southwest Junior College Football Conference Championship en route to an appearance in the Heart of Texas Bowl. During his four seasons at Kilgore, Lesley helped direct the Rangers to three consecutive playoff appearances while helping tutor 11 players that went on to sign at four-year schools, including six NJCAA All-Americans.

As a graduate assistant at Troy, he began his coaching career on the 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship team. The Trojans won seven of their last eight games that season, including a 41-17 victory over Rice in the New Orleans Bowl.

Lesley was a versatile player for the Trojans and was a key part of teams that successfully made the transition to the FBS ranks. A two-year starter at tight end, Lesley helped lead Troy to the 2004 Silicon Valley Bowl and was named a team captain.

A native of Fulton, Mississippi, Lesley was a three-time all-district performer at Itawamba Agricultural High School, earning Class 4A All-State Second Team as a senior in 1999.

Lesley and his wife, Ann Katherine, have two daughters, Mary Kate and Mae Blake, and a son, Jordan Jr.

SHADON BROWN

Co-Defensive Coordinator
Defensive Backs
@Backendcoach12

ShaDon Brown is in his second year as the co-defensive coordinator and oversees the defensive secondary.

In Brown's first year as the Mountaineers' secondary coach, WVU finished No. 5 nationally in red-zone defense, an improvement of 67 spots from the year before, was No. 18 in fewest defensive first downs allowed and in fourth-down percentage, No. 29 in third-down defense (.347), No. 37 in total defense (350.1) and No. 39 in tackles for loss (6.5), an improvement of nine spots from the 2020 season.

WVU tied for No. 2 in the Big 12 in conference games in interceptions and was No. 3 in passing defense, giving up only 211.2 yards game through the air. In all games, WVU was No. 5 in the nation in red-zone defense and No. 18 in fewest first downs allowed.

In 2021 conference games, Charles Woods was tied for No. 11 in the league in interceptions and No. 13 in passes defended. According to PFF College, he had the lowest pass rating allowed in coverage among Big 12 cornerbacks (22.1).

In 2020, the Louisville secondary led the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing defense and was No. 17 nationally, giving up 189.2 yards per game. The Cardinals defense was No. 3 in the ACC in scoring defense, total defense and pass-efficiency defense. Senior safety Russ Yeast was UL's fifth-leading tackler, registering 45 tackles, including 31 solo stops, three pass breakups, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. Isaiah Hayes was the seventh-leading tackler with 37 tackles, including 23 solo stops, 1.5 tackles for loss and four pass breakups.

In 2019, Brown guided a safety group, which was led by Khane Pass, who posted a career high 81 tackles and made the key defensive play in the Music City Bowl win by returning a fumble for a touchdown late in the game. Brown was named one of the top 30 recruiters in the ACC by 247Sports.

Prior to Louisville, Brown spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons at Colorado, overseeing the secondary. He was promoted to defensive passing game coordinator for the 2018 season.

The Colorado secondary thrived during Brown's tenure in Boulder, allowing opponents to complete just 56.2% of their passes. The Buffaloes led the Pac-12 Conference in opposing completion percentage (56.7 percent) in 2018 and ranked fourth in 2017. Colorado was No. 2 in third-down defense and No. 5 in total defense and pass defense in 2018 and No. 6 in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2017.

Brown coached a pair of all-conference selections, Evan Worthington, who earned honorable mention honors in 2017 and 2018, and Isaiah Oliver, who was a second-team All-American and an All-Pac-12 First Team selection in 2017. Oliver was a second-round selection by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2018 National Football League draft. Five players Brown coached at Colorado signed NFL contracts: Oliver (Atlanta Falcons), Delrick Abrams (Atlanta Falcons), Davion Taylor (Philadelphia Eagles), Afolabi Laguda (Los Angeles Rams) and Worthington (Baltimore Ravens).

Brown spent the 2016 season at Army, coaching the cornerbacks. The Black Knights' defensive backfield ranked No. 2 nationally in first-down defense, No. 4 in total defense, No. 6 in pass defense (170.2), No. 11 in interceptions (17), No. 16 in scoring defense and No. 17 in pass efficiency defense (115.12).

While Brown was on staff, Army went from a 2-10 record in 2015 to an 8-5 mark in 2016 and a win in the Heart of Dallas Bowl against North Texas.

Prior to that, Brown spent five seasons (2011-15) at Wofford, the first four as cornerbacks coach before switching to the safeties for his final year. Brown was also special teams coordinator during the 2013-14 seasons, before being promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2015. He coached three all-conference corners at Wofford, including Blake Wylie, who earned third-team All-America honors in 2012.

In the summer of 2015, he participated in the NFL's program for minority coaches by interning with the Super Bowl 50 runner-up Carolina Panthers, where he worked with the defensive backs.

Before joining the Wofford staff, Brown coached in the high school ranks in Kentucky. From 2008-10, he served as the head coach at Rowan County High, where he led the Vikings to the 2010 Class 4A District 8 Championship, the school's first title since 1982. He was named the Kentucky Class 4A District 8 Coach of the Year in 2010, and 10 of his players went on to play college football. He was an assistant coach at Boyle County High (Neal Brown's alma mater) for the 2007 season.

He started his coaching career in 2003 as a graduate assistant helping tutor the linebackers at the University of the Cumberlands in Williamsburg, Kentucky. After one year, he was promoted to the full-time assistant coach for the inside linebackers (2004-05), helping lead the Patriot football team to as high as No. 5 in the national rankings. In 2006, he returned to his alma mater, Campbellsville, as the inside linebackers coach for one season.

Brown graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education and a minor in health education from Campbellsville University in Campbellsville, Kentucky in 2003 and earned his master's degreew in secondary education from the University of the Cumberlands in 2008. He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter, Shaelyn, and two sons, Braylon and Keenan.

CHAD SCOTT

Run Game Coordinator
Running Backs
@CoachChadScott

Chad Scott is in his fourth year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the running backs coach. He served as the co-offensive coordinator for the first three years and was named the run game coordinator this past offseason.

In 2021, running back Leddie Brown finished with more than 1,000 yards rushing for the second straight season (1,065) and finished with a team-high 14 offensive touchdowns. He ranked No. 6 in the Big 12 Conference in rushing, No. 4 in total touchdowns and No. 11 in scoring.

In 2020, the Mountaineers had the most improved offense in the country in terms of total yards. Their running game improved its production by more than 60 yards per game, more than 90 yards of total offense and almost seven points a game.

Leddie Brown had a productive year, rushing for 1,010 yards and nine touchdowns, earning All-Big 12 Conference First Team honors. Brown averaged 5.1 yards per carry and was ranked No. 14 nationally in rushing yards (1,010), No. 26 in touchdowns (11), No. 27 in rushing yards per game (101.0) and No. 31 in rushing touchdowns (9).

Scott has worked with coach Neal Brown during three different coaching tenures: Kentucky (RB/2013-14), Texas Tech (RB/2010-12) and Troy (RB/2007-09). He also was a teammate of Brown's at UK.

He came to Morgantown after serving as the tight ends and hybrids coach at North Carolina from 2016-18.

In 2018, the Tar Heel offense ranked No. 31 nationally in total offense, averaging 442.1 yards per game. Tight end Carl Tucker was named to the Mackey Award preseason watch list, and he and his teammate, Jake Bargas, averaged more than 10 yards per reception.

In 2016, Scott was part of an offensive staff that oversaw the establishment of more than 40 individual and team records, including passing yards and passing yards per game.

Scott returned to Chapel Hill after coaching at Kentucky, where he tutored running backs from 2013-15 and was the run-game coordinator in 2014-15. He helped develop a solid Wildcat running attack that featured Stanley Williams, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry, and Jojo Kemp, who gained 5.7 yards per attempt.

He spent three seasons at Texas Tech from 2010-12. While the Red Raiders were known for throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked No. 115 in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to No. 75 nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked No. 66 in rushing offense and No. 77 in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to No. 35 nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and No. 16 in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked No. 3 in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons, he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris, who has played in the NFL for seven years, ranked No. 2 in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards

In Scott's last season at Troy, he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, earning Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

A native of Plant City, Florida, Scott began his collegiate playing career at Kentucky before transferring to North Carolina, where he lettered in 2003 and 2005. He earned first-team All-ACC honors from ESPN.com after rushing for 796 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Scott made his first career start as a Tar Heel against No. 4 Miami and rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in a 31-28 victory.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with the Cleveland Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

He graduated from UNC in 2004 with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky. The couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

JEFF KOONZ

Special Teams Coordinator
Inside Linebackers
@CoachKoonz

Jeff Koonz is in his third year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the special teams coordinator and inside linebackers coach.

In 2021, kicker Casey Legg was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, signifying the top kicker in college football. He hit 19-of-23 field goals and all 35 extra points and led WVU in scoring (92). He was first in the Big 12 Conference and No. 18 nationally in field goals made per game (1.6), No. 4 in the league and No. 26 nationally in field goal percentage, No. 3 in the conference in total field goals made (19) and No. 6 in scoring (7.7).

Punter Tyler Sumpter was No. 2 in the Big 12 Conference and No. 36 nationally in punting, and Winston Wright Jr. was No. 19 nationally in kickoff return average per game. Wright was named an All-Big 12 Conference First Team selection by PFF College.

WVU's defense finished No. 5 nationally in red zone defense, an improvement of 67 spots from the year before, was No. 18 in fewest defensive first downs allowed and in fourth-down percentage, No. 29 in third-down defense (.347), No. 37 in total defense (350.1) and No. 39 in tackles for loss (6.5), an improvement of nine spots from the 2020 season.

The WVU defense had an outstanding year in 2020, leading the nation in pass defense and ranking No. 4 in total defense (291.4), No. 21 in scoring defense (20.5), No. 23 in interceptions (11), No. 24 in pass efficiency defense (121.52) and No. 28 in rushing defense (131.8).

Tony Fields II led the Mountaineers and the Big 12 with 88 tackles, ranking No. 27 nationally. He was named to the All-Big 12 First Team and the Reese's Senior Bowl All-American team and was drafted in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

WVU's kickoff return defense was the best in the Big 12 and No. 39 in the nation, and the punt return defense was No. 3 in the Big 12 and No. 17 in the nation.

Koonz came to West Virginia after serving as the inside linebackers coach at Ole Miss for the 2019 season. Two of his linebackers, Lakia Henry (81 tackles) and Jacquez Jones (62 tackles), were two of the three top tacklers for the Rebels and Jones tied for second on the team in tackles for loss (6.5). The defense finished with 30 sacks for the season, ranking No. 2 in the SEC and No. 25 nationally.

Prior to that, Koonz spent two years at North Texas, coaching the linebackers, before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator for the 2018 season. He helped develop E.J. Ejiya, who led UNT in tackles, tackles for loss and sacks both years.

Koonz spent three years at Cincinnati, coaching the safeties in 2014, and linebackers in 2015 and 2016. In 2015, he mentored second-team All-AAC selection Eric Wilson and freshman standout Bryce Jenkinson, who finished first (106) and third (59) on the team in tackles, respectively. Cincinnati finished its 2014 campaign with a 9-4 record, an American Athletic Conference Championship and a matchup against Virginia Tech in the Military Bowl.

Before his tenure at Cincinnati, Koonz spent four seasons at Louisiana Tech. During the 2013 campaign, Tech's first as a member of Conference USA, he coached the linebackers, led by Conference USA honorable mention player Daniel Cobb, who finished the season with 82 total tackles. In 2011, Tech's starting linebackers Adrien Cole and Jay Dudley accounted for 230 total tackles - 65 percent of Tech's tackles for the season. Cole led the team with 128 tackles and 13 tackles for a loss as he was named first team All-Western Athletic Conference and the WAC Defensive Player of the Year. Dudley was responsible for 102 tackles, eight tackles for a loss and four interceptions, three of which were returned for touchdowns. In 2010, his first year at Louisiana Tech, three of his linebackers finished the season in the top four on the team in tackles, with Cole earning second-team All-WAC honors.

The Wallkill, New York, native previously served as a defensive quality control assistant at Texas, helping lead the Longhorns to a Big 12 title and an appearance in the 2009 BCS national championship game against Alabama. He also served at Texas as a graduate assistant from 2005-06 and linebackers' coach toward the conclusion of the 2006 season. The Longhorns won the Big 12 championship and national championship in 2005.

Prior to his second stint at Texas, Koonz was the secondary coach at Iowa State for two seasons under Gene Chizik, while also assisting with special teams from 2007-08. Koonz was also a graduate assistant coach at Auburn during the 2004 campaign under Tommy Tuberville, coaching the secondary. While at Auburn, he worked on staffs that led the Tigers to the 2002 Capital One Bowl championship, a 2003 Music City Bowl victory, the 2004 SEC championship and a win in the 2004 Nokia Sugar Bowl.

He graduated from Auburn in 2004 with a bachelor's of science degree in physical education and received his master's degree in educational administration from Texas in 2006.

Koonz, and his wife, Maura, have two daughters, Mary Margaret and MacKenzie Rae, and a son, Jameson Jeffrey. His father, also named Jeff Koonz, recently retired after serving for 15 years as the head coach at Holmes Community College in Goodman, Mississippi.

ANDREW JACKSON

Defensive Line
@CoachJaxDL

Andrew Jackson is in his second year as the defensive line coach.

In 2021, the defensive line finished with 20 1/2 sacks and 40 tackles for loss and ranked No. 39 nationally in tackles for loss. Defensive lineman Dante Stills earned All-Big 12 Conference First Team honors by the league coaches, Associated Press and Phil Steele after leading the defense with seven sacks and 15 tackles for loss. He ranked No. 4 in the Big 12 in tackles for loss and No. 10 in sacks.

Defensive end Taijh Alston was named one of the Mayo Clinic semifinalists for Comeback Player of the Year, lineman Jordan Jefferson was named an All-Big 12 Third-Team honoree by PFF College and lineman Akheem Mesidor was named an All-Big 12 Third-Team selection by Phil Steele.

WVU finished No. 5 nationally in red zone defense, an improvement of 67 spots from the year before, was No. 18 in fewest defensive first downs allowed and in fourth-down percentage, No. 29 in third-down defense (.347), No. 37 in total defense (350.1) and No. 39 in tackles for loss (6.5), an improvement of nine spots from the 2020 season.

Jackson came to Morgantown after serving as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for defense at ODU. He joined the ODU staff after spending the 2019 season at James Madison as the defensive tackles coach. While at JMU, the Dukes led the FCS in total defense and was third in scoring defense. Defensive tackle Mike Greene led the Colonial Athletic Association in sacks by an interior lineman and earned all-conference honors.

Jackson was the defensive quality control coach at Mississippi State in 2018, where he helped the Bulldogs to an 8-5 record and berth in the Outback Bowl. MSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in eight defensive categories, including a No. 1 national ranking in total defense (263.1). Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat earned All-Southeastern Conference honors.

In 2017, Jackson coached the defensive line at Fordham. He was responsible for game planning the run game, pass protection and third-down blitz packages and prepared the opponent scouting report for the defense.

Prior to that, Jackson was a graduate assistant with the defensive line for two years at Penn State. He completed all opponent and self-scout defensive breakdowns and coached the scout team. Two players he worked with earned national attention, All-American Carl Nassib and consensus All-American Anthony Zettel. Nassib was the Big Ten's Bronko Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year and was the Hendricks Award and Lombardi Award winner.

Jackson spent two years as an assistant coach at Stony Brook, first as a graduate assistant and then as assistant defensive line coach. One of his players, Aaron Thompson went on to rank among the top 10 nationally in sacks and earn All-CAA First Team honors. Jackson started his coaching career at LIU Post as a graduate assistant.

Jackson was a three-year captain and three-year starter for LIU Post. He was an All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Second Team honoree as a senior after recording five sacks and 12 tackles for loss for the Pioneers. He was a member of the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society and was awarded two of the athletics department's most prestigious honors, the Christine Webb Award and the Roy Illowit Award.

Jackson earned his bachelor's degree in physical education science and coaching from Long Island University in 2011 and three master's degrees, one in Interdisciplinary studies from Long Island in 2012, liberal arts and science from Stony Brook in 2014 and educational leadership from Penn State in 2017.

He and his wife, the former Blair Kersh, were married in July 2022.

SEAN REAGAN

Tight Ends
@CoachSeanReagan

Sean Reagan is in his fourth year on the Mountaineer coaching staff, serving the first three as the quarterbacks coach and currently coaching the tight ends.

In 2021, WVU was fourth in the Big 12 in passing yards, finishing with more than 3,200 yards through the air. Mountaineer quarterback Jarrett Doege was second in the league in passing yards, being one of only two passers with more than 3,000 yards, and was fourth in total offense.

In 2020, despite having to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic, West Virginia had one of the most improved offenses in the nation in terms of total yards, showing gains of more than 60 yards rushing per game, almost 30 yards passing a game, more than 90 yards of total offense and scoring almost seven more points a game.

Jarret Doege threw for more than 2,500 yards and 14 touchdowns. He ranked No. 10 nationally in completions per game (23.9), No. 16 in passing yards (2,587), No. 23 in passing yards per game (258.7) and No. 37 in completion percentage (.639). He finished with four 300-yard passing games, had multiple passing touchdowns four times and had 30 or more completions three times.

In 2019, quarterback Austin Kendall averaged 20.8 completions per game, ranking No. 4 in the Big 12 and No. 25 nationally. Jarret Doege led WVU to wins in two of its final three games of the season.

Reagan came to West Virginia in 2019 after serving as an assistant coach at Troy from 2008-18, including the last four years as a member of Brown's staff. He was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018, oversaw the quarterbacks and running backs the previous three years (2014-17) and was the quarterbacks coach from 2011-14. He also served as a graduate assistant in 2010 at Texas Tech, where he worked with Brown, the offensive coordinator of the Red Raiders at the time.

In 2018, Troy finished with a 10-3 record and tied for the Eastern Division championship in the Sun Belt Conference. The Trojans went on to defeat Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl, marking the third consecutive season with a bowl win. Quarterback Kaleb Barker started the first six games and posted more than 1,000 passing yards and 10 touchdowns and ran for 261 yards and three touchdowns, before a season-ending injury forced him to hand the reins to Sawyer Smith. Prior to that, Reagan worked with three record-setting quarterbacks at Troy: Brandon Silvers (2014-17), Corey Robinson (2011-13) and Levi Brown (2008-09).

In 2017, Troy finished the season 11-2 with a Sun Belt Conference championship, New Orleans Bowl victory and a regular-season win at No. 22 LSU, ending its 49-game home non-conference winning streak. Troy finished the 2016 season 10-3 with a victory on the Dollar General Bowl, the first top-25 ranking in school and Sun Belt history and tied for the best win-improvement in the country.

Reagan also coached the running backs for three years on Brown's staff. During that time, Jordan Chunn finished with 1,288 yards and 16 touchdowns and went on to set the Troy career rushing and total touchdown records in 2017. He also mentored running back Brandon Burks, Troy's eighth 1,000-yard rusher, finishing the 2015 season with 1,005 yards and seven touchdowns.

Robinson also had an impressive career with the Trojans, finishing as one of the top passers in school, Sun Belt and NCAA history. He led Troy with school and league records for touchdown passes, attempts, completions, passing yards and total offense. He finished with career as one of five players in NCAA history to throw for more than 3,000 yards and have more than 3,000 yards of total offense in four different years. He finished No. 9 in FBS history in passing yards and set the NCAA record for completion percentage in a game (30-of-32 against UAB in 2013), earning Capital One National Player of the Week honors.

After returning to Troy in 2011 as the quarterbacks coach, Reagan coached All-Sun Belt performer Deon Anthony. In 2012, Anthony set the Troy single-season record by completing 69.9 percent of his passes (79-of-113) and was named the Allstate Sugar Bowl Manning Award Player of the Week.

As a graduate assistant coach in 2008-09, Reagan was on the Trojans' staff that won two Sun Belt Conference championships, including finishing with an undefeated conference record in 2009.

Reagan began his coaching career at the high-school level as an assistant at Rockdale High School in Conyers, Georgia, for four years (1998-01), before moving to Chestatee High School in Gainesville, Georgia, for four years (2002-06), including the final two as the offensive coordinator. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as the offensive coordinator at Monroe Area High School in Monroe, Georgia, before heading to Troy.

A native of Conyers, Georgia, Reagan received his bachelor's degree in physical education and leadership from North Georgia College & State University in 2008. He, and his wife, Elizabeth, are the parents of three daughters: Heidi, Chloe and Maggie.

TONY WASHINGTON

Wide Receivers
@Tony_TDUB

Tony Washington joined the Mountaineer coaching staff as the wide receivers coach in February 2022.

Washington came to WVU after serving as the wide receivers coach at Coastal Carolina in 2019-20. During that time, the Chanticleers were one of the most successful programs in the nation, posting a 22-3 record and 14-2 mark in the Sun Belt Conference, spending most of that time in the national polls.

In 2021, the Chanticleers' offense was one of the most explosive units in the nation, ranking among the top FBS teams in a variety of categories. Coastal Carolina finished with 11 wins, won the school's first bowl game and spent time in the national top 20 for most of the season, finishing as one of the top teams just outside the top 25.

CCU was the most efficient team in the nation and produced the best third-down conversion percentage, ranking No. 5 in total offense and scoring offense, No. 6 in rushing offense and fewest interceptions thrown, No. 23 in red zone offense, No. 25 in first down offense and No. 28 in passing offense.

Washington's receivers were a vital part of the offense, as Jaivon Heiligh led the squad with 66 catches for 1,128 yards and seven touchdowns, earning honorable mention All-America honors and All-Sun Belt Conference honors for the second straight year. Kameron Brown also was named All-Sun Belt honorable mention. Heiligh was No. 22 nationally in receiving yards, and Heiligh and Brown ranked in the Top 11 in the Sun Belt in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. Heiligh was No. 3 in the league in receptions per game.

In 2020, the Chanticleers won the program's first-ever Sun Belt Conference title, posting an undefeated and untied regular season. They finished 11-1 overall, including an 8-0 Sun Belt Conference record, and played in the program's first-ever FBS postseason bowl game. The program earned spots in the Associated Press Top 25 and the USA Today Sports Polls.

Overall, the 2020 offense led the conference in scoring offense (37.2 points per game), third-down conversion percentage (52.3%), fourth-down conversion percentage (76.5%), time of possession (33:5%), completion percentage (66.6%), fewest interceptions thrown (five) and team passing efficiency (177.72).

CCU was second in the league for the year in red-zone offense (88.3 percent), and second in sacks allowed per game (1.17) and tackles-for-loss allowed per game (4.33) on the year. The Chanticleers also ranked third in the conference in total offense (449.8 yards per game) and rushing offense (218.3 yards per game), both of which ranked in the top 25 nationally.

Heiligh led the offense with a team-high 65 receptions for 998 yards and 10 touchdowns on the season. He averaged 15.4 yards per catch and 83.2 yards per game on his way to becoming just the 12th Chanticleer in program history to eclipse 1,000 career receiving yards. He also became just the sixth Chanticleer in program history to record over 100 pass receptions.

Heiligh led the team in receptions, receiving yards, and receiving touchdowns in 2020, but he did it in record-setting fashion by setting a new CCU single-game record with 13 receptions.

After putting together an outstanding collegiate resume at Appalachian State from 2009-13, Washington spent the majority of his NFL career with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by the Indianapolis Colts in 2014, Washington was picked up by the Jaguars later that summer before being acquired by the New England Patriots in 2017.

Washington was a multiple All-Southern Conference pick, while at Appalachian State, earning all-conference accolades in 2012 and 2013, and was selected to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Senior Bowl.

He can be found all over the Appalachian State record book, ranking in the top 10 in most pass receptions in a game (10), most pass receptions in a season (64), and most career receiving yards (1,837). He also ranks in the top 10 in the Mountaineers' record books in several special teams categories including most kickoff return yards in a season (654), most kickoff return yards in a career (1,289), most kickoff returns in a season (31), most kickoff returns in a career (55), most yards per kickoff return in a season (27.3), most yards per kickoff return in a career (23.4) and the longest kickoff return (99).

He earned several accolades for his performance in the classroom, including SoCon All-Academic, CoSIDA Academic All-District, and ADA FCS All-Star Academic honors, along with being the 2013 recipient of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award & Scholarship. Washington was a Dean's List student who also captured the school's Science Building Most Outstanding Student Award.

In the community, Washington has served in mentorship and coaching roles for the Cheryl Littlejohn Kids Camp, Danny O'Brien Elite High School Football Academy and the Jacksonville Jaguars Community Outreach Program. In 2015, he served as a special guest speaker and receivers coach for the Nike Opening Orlando event.

Washington, who prepped at T. Wingate Andrews High School in High Point, North Carolina, earned dual bachelor's degrees in architecture & design technology and construction management from Appalachian State in 2013.

Washington, and his wife, Tiffany, have two sons, TJ and Langston.

DONTAE WRIGHT

Safeties
@CoachWright37

Dontae Wright is in his third year on the Mountaineer coaching staff as the safeties coach. He came to Morgantown after serving as the safeties coach at Western Michigan for two seasons.

WVU finished No. 5 nationally in red zone defense, an improvement of 67 spots from the year before, was No. 18 in fewest defensive first downs allowed and fourth-down percentage, No. 29 in third-down defense (.347), No. 37 in total defense (350.1) and No. 39 in tackles for loss (6.5), an improvement of nine spots from the 2020 season.

In 2021 conference games, WVU was tied for No. 2 in the Big 12 Conference in interceptions and was No. 3 in passing defense, giving up only 211.2 yards per game through the air. WVU was No. 5 in the nation in red zone defense and No. 18 in fewest first downs allowed.

Safety Sean Mahone made his mark on and off the field. He was named a finalist for the National Football Foundation's Campbell Trophy, also known as the academic Heisman, and was a member of the Scholar-Athlete team, one of college football's most prestigious academic teams. The school record-holder for the most games played in a WVU career (53), he was WVU's second-leading tackler with 81 stops and tied for the team lead in interceptions (2). He was an All-Big 12 Third-Team selection by Phil Steele.

Safety Alonzo Addae finished as WVU's third-leading tackler (73), had three pass breakups and earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors. He signed a professional contract with the CFL's Ottawa Redblacks after being drafted as the No. 13 pick of the 2021 CFL Draft.

The WVU defense had an outstanding year in 2020, leading the nation in pass defense and ranking No. 4 in total defense (291.4), No. 21 in scoring defense (20.5), No. 23 in interceptions (11), No. 24 in pass efficiency defense (121.52) and No. 28 in rushing defense (131.8).

Alonzo Addae was the Mountaineers' second-leading tackler with 66 stops, including 38 solo stops, tied for the team lead with two interceptions and tied for second on the team with five pass breakups. Addae was named a finalist for the Cornish Trophy, signifying the top Canadian football player playing in the United States and was named an All-Big 12 Second Team performer. Mahone was among the top tacklers for West Virginia, finishing with 54 tacklers, including 34 solo stops, one interception, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

At Western Michigan, his safeties helped WMU turn around its scoring defense in 2019, yielding 25.9 points per game, the best for the program since surrendering just 19.8 in 2016, and nearly nine points per game better than the 34.5 points a contest allowed in 2018.

The unit was led by senior Justin Tranquill's 83 tackles and two interceptions and junior A.J. Thomas' 47 stops and six pass breakups. The group held three of its final five opponents to fewer than 150 passing yards. The 2018 season saw Wright guide Tranquill to 82 tackles and two pass breakups while Thomas finished with 47 stops.

Prior to WMU, Wright served as an assistant coach at Tennessee Tech for two seasons (2016-17), mentoring the specialists and the defensive ends. At the beginning of the 2017 season, Wright was promoted to defensive coordinator.

In 2017, the Golden Eagles yielded 15.8 points per game, dropping more than 11 points from the 2016 average of 26.9. Wright guided the 2016 defensive squad to five Ohio Valley Conference wins. The program ended the campaign on the upswing with consecutive victories against Tennessee State and Murray State.

Before joining Tennessee Tech, Wright spent three seasons (2013-15) at Morehead State. He was the defensive coordinator for the 2015 season and worked with the defensive line, special teams and was a recruiting coordinator during his tenure.

As the defensive coordinator, he lowered Morehead State's points allowed per game by 18.3, which was the second-largest improvement for all Division I schools, FBS and FCS, from the year prior. The Eagles ranked in the top 10 in the FCS for interceptions (18) and turnovers (28) and in the top 20 for tackles for loss.

Wright also made a coaching stop at Centre College and spent two seasons (2010-11) at North Alabama, helping the Lions to a combined 18-8 record and an NCAA Division II playoff appearance.

Wright was a graduate assistant at Kentucky from 2007-09, working with the linebackers his first season and the defensive line the last two. During his time in Lexington, the Wildcats made two Music City Bowl appearances and one Liberty Bowl trip.

As a player, Wright was a four-year linebacker at Miami (Ohio) from 2003-06 and was a part of two Mid-American Conference East Division championship teams. The RedHawks won the conference outright in 2003, earning a spot in the GMAC Bowl. They won won a division crown in 2004 and participated in the Independence Bowl.

A native of Louisa, Kentucky, Wright earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Miami in 2007.

MIKE JOSEPH

Assistant Athletics Director
Head Coach for Football
Strength and Conditioning
@WVU_FB_Strength

Mike Joseph has overseen the strength and conditioning unit at West Virginia since 2008, serving as the director until being named assistant athletics director in 2018 and assistant athletics director/head coach for football strength and conditioning in 2019.

He administers, coordinates, develops, implements and teaches strength and conditioning programs for all WVU student-athletes with an emphasis on the football program.

Joseph, who was presented with his Master Strength and Conditioning Coaching distinction in 2014, served for five years as the assistant strength coach at Notre Dame (2003-08), working with football and was responsible for the strength and conditioning programs for baseball, volleyball and softball prior to coming back to West Virginia.

Joseph worked with the head strength coach with football, assisted with workouts, testing, conditioning, speed and agility training and in-season and offseason training schedules on a daily basis. He also was responsible for developing and training the quarterbacks, tight ends, linebackers, fullbacks and injured players.

He also had the same responsibilities with baseball, volleyball and softball. He supervised and maintained facility and equipment and scheduling all student-athletes for the school's 27 sports.

He spent two years as an assistant strength coach at Eastern Michigan (2001-03) and as a graduate assistant at WVU (1999-2001). He also worked at Healthworks Fitness and Rehabilitation in Morgantown in the summer of 2001.

Prior to that, he was the strength and conditioning coach at Fairmont State (Aug. 1998 – May 1999). The son of Hall of Fame and former Mountaineer coach Don Nehlen, he is responsible for maintaining and procuring all equipment and uniforms for the football program as well as overseeing the football student managers.

Nehlen also coordinates the extensive movement of equipment when West Virginia hits the road.

A native of Canton, Ohio, Nehlen received a bachelor's degree in physical education and safety in 1985 from West Virginia. He and his wife, Janie, have two children, Ryan and Danielle. Ryan serves as the Mountaineers' offensive analyst.

CONOR MCNAMARA
Athletics Equipment Manager

Conor McNamara joined the WVU Athletic Department in December 2015 as an assistant equipment manager and was promoted to equipment manager in June 2019.

A native of Venetia, Pennsylvania, McNamara handles the responsibilities for all Mountaineer Olympic sports teams. McNamara oversees the day-to-day operations of the equipment room at the WVU Coliseum, while working directly with Nike and handling daily department orders.

Additionally, McNamara provides support to the equipment staff for the WVU football team, assisting the daily operations and working as the headset technician for all coaching staff communication on game days. He also travels with football, men's soccer and other teams as needed.

McNamara came to WVU after working with team sales at Century Sports, Inc., in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, from 2013-15. While there, he created and designed uniforms and other spirit wear for more than 75 school districts across Western Pennsylvania. He also served as a liaison with top sporting vendors, such as Nike, Under Armour and Schutt Sporting Goods.

McNamara previously served as the head equipment manager for the WVU baseball team from 2012-13. He also interned with the WVU athletic facilities and operations office from 2010-13.

McNamara earned his bachelor of science in sport management from WVU in 2013.

McNamara, his wife, Allison, and their son, Jack, reside in Morgantown.

AUSTIN BLAKE
Assistant Equipment Manager

Austin Blake has been a member of the Mountaineer football staff since 2018, first as a student manager until 2021, then a graduate assistant and then was promoted to assistant equipment manager in February 2022.

Blake coordinates the maintenance and repair of athletic equipment, uniforms and facilities. He also prepares all the equipment for game day, including all areas of players' gear and coaches' game day apparel. He also assists in the purchasing, issuance, storage and accountability of all Nike athletic equipment, footwear and apparel and also assists in the coordination of the Coachcomm system, setting up for practices and game day.

Blake graduated from West Virginia with his bachelor's degree in sport management in 2021, earning President's List distinction, and will graduate with his master's degree in sport management in May 2022.

DR. A.J. MONSEAU
Medical Director/Head Team Physician

A.J. Monseau, M.D., WVU Medicine Emergency Medicine and Sports Medicine physician, has been the head team physician and medical director for WVU Athletics since 2017.

In 2016, Dr. Monseau served as the team physician for WVU Men's Basketball. He also served as team physician for USA Wrestling at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

As head team physician and medical director for WVU Athletics, Monseau leads the University's staff of team physicians and works in conjunction with the athletic training staff to provide healthcare to all student-athletes. This includes injury prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, education, and counseling.

Originally from the Northern Panhandle, Monseau received his medical degree from and completed his residency training at the WVU School of Medicine. He then completed fellowship training in primary care sports medicine at the University of Michigan School of Medicine. He returned to his alma mater upon completion of his fellowship in 2011.

Currently, Monseau is a professor in the WVU Department of Emergency Medicine. In addition to working as an attending physician in the J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital Emergency Department, he also sees sports medicine patients through WVU Medicine Orthopaedics. He is board certified in emergency medicine and primary care sports medicine.

Athletics have always been a part of Monseau's life. After completing a three-sport career at Wheeling Park High School, Monseau carried his love of sports through his undergraduate education, during which he competed on the West Liberty University (then West Liberty State College) wrestling team for his father, who is a National Wrestling Hall of Fame coach. Though he gave up competing when he began medical school, he made sure to choose a specialty that would allow him to remain connected to competitive sports.

VINCE BLANKENSHIP
Assistant Athletics Director/
Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Vince Blankenship, a member of the West Virginia athletic training staff since 2014, has served as the assistant athletics director/head athletic trainer for football since 2019.

Prior to that, he was an assistant athletic trainer and physical therapist, working primarily with the Mountaineer football and golf programs. He was named athletics rehabilitation specialist in the fall of 2016.

Blankenship provides oversight of the athletics medical unit for the football team, including the day-to-day operation of the training room. He supervises the daily care, rehabilitation and prevention of athletic injuries for the football program, as well as supervises the long-term rehabilitation with all other WVU sports on campus. He also will continue his duties as an instructor in the WVU athletic training education program.

Prior to coming to WVU, he worked with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Detroit Lions and the University of Georgia football programs. While working towards his doctorate in physical therapy at Georgia Regents University, which he earned in 2013, Blankenship worked as a part-time athletic trainer for University Hospital and Georgia Regents University, covering high school and collegiate sports. Blankenship earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science with an athletic training emphasis at Georgia in 2009. Additionally, he is a Titleist Performance Institute Level II Medical Professional.

He and his wife, Idania, have two sons, Noah and Eli.

ZACH FOSTER

He was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 team member, including first team selection as a senior and was a member of the Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Garrett Ford Academic Honor Roll.

The 2017 Tommy Nickolich Award winner, signifying the program's top walk-on, Meadows graduated from West Virginia with his bachelor's degree in sport and exercise psychology in 2017 and his master's degree in sport and coaching education with an emphasis in performance coaching in 2018.

NOLAN HARVATH

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Nolan Harvath joined the Mountaineer football strength and conditioning staff in spring 2022 as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He initially joined the Mountaineer strength and conditioning staff in December 2020, working with the baseball and golf programs.

He came to WVU after a three-year stint as the director of strength and conditioning at Glenville State from 2018-20. He also was assistant athletic director at GSC from 2019-20.

With the Pioneers, Harvath was responsible for all strength and conditioning activities within the athletic department, including program design and implementation. Additionally, he oversaw all strength, speed, power and ability testing, as well as budgeting and fundraising activities related to strength and conditioning.

Prior to his time in Glenville, Harvath was a strength and conditioning intern at WVU, working primarily with the football team. He assisted during team lifts and runs and was responsible for setting up and breaking down all team strength and conditioning activities.

Harvath also served as a consultant for the University of Charleston baseball team from 2016-20, designing all strength and conditioning programs for the team. He also tracked, monitored and assessed all data obtained from each macrocycle.

In the prep ranks, Harvath also spent time as a strength and conditioning coach at East Fairmont High (2016-17) and Morgantown High (2013-15).

A native of Fairmont, West Virginia, Harvath graduated from the University of Southern Indiana with a degree in exercise science before earning his master's in coaching and sport education from WVU.

BRITTNEY O'DELL

Associate Athletics Director/
Student-Athlete Development

As WVU's associate athletics director for student-athlete development, Brittney O'Dell administers the operation of the student-athlete development division. The academic support unit is comprised of 14 full-time staff members, seven part-time employees, 18 varsity sports and approximately 500 student-athletes. Her duties include assuring a commitment to academic excellence, while supporting the educational and personal growth of all student-athletes. In addition, O'Dell oversees the Student-Athlete Enhancement unit, which provides life skills and career development opportunities for student-athletes to ensure success beyond graduation.

At WVU, O'Dell also serves as the sport administrator for the men's and women's swimming and diving programs. O'Dell also is responsible for providing operational oversight for the Sports Psychology and Mental Health Counseling division of the department, which employs a director of clinical and sports psychology and a clinical and sports behavioral health therapist. She collaborates with WVU's Carruth Center for Psychological and Psychiatric Services to ensure the athletics department is facilitating services to student-athletes in support of their mental health and sport performance.

O'Dell is the primary liaison to many academic units and colleges across the University. She has regular communication with the Provost's office, Admissions office, Registrar's office, Accessibility Services office and various other campus departments to ensure the best services and resources are provided for student-athletes through effective collaboration.

O'Dell has been a member of the Mountaineer student-athlete development staff since 2015. She arrived in Morgantown as the assistant director, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the football academic support unit. After a year in that role, she was promoted to associate director, where she served for two years before assuming the assistant athletics director of student-athlete development duties in 2018 where she worked until her recent promotion in July 2021

O'Dell is still involved in the academic operations of football, a role she previously served in for the past six years. Under her charge, the football team has graduated 100% of its players over the last three years, earned a program high single-year APR score of 990 in 2019-2020, and achieved a record-high GPA in any regular term of 3.11 in the Spring 2021 semester. She is passionate about education and providing intentional programing to student-athletes to ensure their success well beyond their years at WVU.

O'Dell came to West Virginia after serving as a coordinator of academic advising services at the University of Central Florida for four years (2011-15) and was a graduate assistant there for two years prior (2009-2011). She had direct oversight of academic advising, monitoring player progress, creating individualized academic plans, coordinating tutoring needs and ensuring academic success for the UCF defensive football players and the women's golf team.

Her responsibilities also included overseeing the academic mentoring program, where she was responsible for hiring graduate level academic mentors to help student-athletes develop time management and organizational skills, while also monitoring and tracking their academic progress. She also served as a learning specialist with at-risk student-athletes during a portion of her time at UCF and was the liaison with the Office of Student Accessibility Services, where she coordinated full-battery testing, attended intake appointments, and helped to facilitate the accommodation process for registered student-athletes.

O'Dell also worked with women's basketball, women's soccer, softball, and rowing during her time at UCF. She served on multiple campus committees within the student development and enrollment services department and developed an academic mentoring program and training database for student-athletes. O'Dell was also an adjunct professor in the College of Education where she taught a freshman seminar course that focused on developing strategies for success in college.

She is a member of the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development Professionals. She is nationally certified, served on the 2014 regional planning committee, and also presented at the organization's national conference in June 2011 for winning the model practice program award at UCF. Additionally, she regularly attends NCAA's Regional Rules along with the Big 12 summer workshop seminars to stay well-informed of all national and conference legislation updates.

O'Dell is a native of Orlando, Florida. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in family and child sciences with a concentration in psychology and counseling from Florida State University (FSU) in 2008. She earned her master's degree in educational leadership from UCF in 2011.

West Virginia lost its season opener for the first time under Neal Brown, as Maryland came away with a 30-24 victory in College Park.

The Terrapins used the big play throughout the game, along with scoring 10 points off four West Virginia turnovers (2 interceptions/2 fumbles), to lift them to victory.

The loss overshadowed the tremendous special teams effort of receiver Winston Wright Jr., who turned in 217 kickoff return yards, including a 98-yarder. On his five kickoff returns, Wright averaged 43.4 yards.

West Virginia won the coin toss and deferred to the second half, giving the ball first to Maryland. The Terrapins had no trouble getting on the board with a nine-play drive that resulted in a 45-yard field goal from Joseph Petrino.

West Virginia answered the score with its most impressive drive in the game, as quarterback Jarret Doege led a seven-play, 78-yard drive that resulted in a 20-yard touchdown pass to tailback Leddie Brown.

The first quarter finished with 31 points on the board between the two teams. The Terps took a 17-7 advantage by adding a 66-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Taulia Tagovailoa to Dontay Demus and then an 18-yard scoring pass from Tagovailoa to Chigoziem Okinkwo. The two drives covered 80 and 70 yards, as the Terps had the Mountaineer defense on its heels in the opening quarter.

However, West Virginia slowed Maryland down before the end of the first with a 98-yard kickoff return by Wright. Brown finished the deal off with his 2-yard scamper, putting the score at 17-14 heading into the second quarter.

The Mountaineers took their first lead in the game at the 11:30 mark of the second quarter, when Brown scored his third touchdown in the first half on a 9-yard rush. West Virginia not only erased Maryland's 10-point lead, but carried a 21-20 advantage into the locker room at halftime after the Terps added a late 21-yard Petrino field goal.

A scoreless third quarter with missed West Virginia opportunities to pad its lead was the break Maryland needed to regain the lead and put the game away in the fourth. Petrino's third field goal gave the Terps a 23-21 lead with 9:16 left, and Jakorian Bennett's interception of Doege in the end zone not only stopped WVU's go-ahead scoring threat but provided momentum for the Terp offense.

After the interception, Tagovailoa went to the air and hit Rakim Jarrett for a 60-yard touchdown and a 30-21 Terrapin lead.

A 23-yard field goal by WVU's Casey Legg made it a one-possession game again with 2:53 left, but the Terps never gave the ball back, running out the final minutes thanks to a 53-yard run by Tayon Fleet-Davis, who finished the game with 123 yards rushing.

Maryland won the statistical battle by finishing with 496 total yards (164 rushing/332 passing) compared to West Virginia's 325 (48 rushing/286 passing).

Coming into the game, West Virginia had won nine of the last 10 against Maryland, including two in a row. The Terrapin victory over the Mountaineers was their first in the series since 2013. West Virginia now leads the overall series with Maryland 28-23-2.

MORGANTOWN (SEPT. 21, 2021)

West Virginia secured its first victory of the 2021 season with a convincing, 66-0 win over FCS opponent Long Island.

New to the FCS level, Long Island was certainly overmatched, but West Virginia used a plethora of players and ran the ball 55 times in a bounce-back effort from an opening-week loss.

The Mountaineers started fast and never looked back as speedster Winston Wright Jr. took the game's opening kickoff 90 yards to the house for a 7-0 lead just 11 seconds into the game.

The Mountaineers would score two more times in the first quarter to take a 21-0 advantage into the second frame. Tailback Leddie Brown scored on touchdown runs of 1 and 2 yards to close an 80-yard and then a 54-yard drive.

Second-quarter action saw the Mountaineers put up 17 points on their way to a 38-0 halftime lead.

Backup quarterback Garrett Greene saw the first extensive playing time of his WVU career against the Sharks and responded with a 3-yard touchdown run midway through the quarter.

Starting quarterback Jarrett Doege re-entered the game and connected with receiver Sam James for an 18-yard touchdown pass with 3:07 left, before kicker Casey Legg closed the scoring in the final minute with a 44-yard field goal.

West Virginia continued its strong offensive output in the third quarter by racking up another 21 points. Receiver Sean Ryan hauled in a 39-yard touchdown catch from Doege at the 12:34 mark, while James added his second touchdown of the day, just over a minute later, with a 15-yard scoring reception.

Greene led all rushers in the contest, and he closed the third-quarter scoring \with his second touchdown run. His 13-yard scamper gave West Virginia a 59-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

The scoring concluded with 5:25 left to play, when running back A'Varius Sparrow turned in a 1-yard touchdown run.

While the offense scored plenty, the West Virginia defense also shined. The Mountaineers recorded their first shutout since 2015, held the Sharks to just 2-of-15 on third-down conversions and recovered a fumble in the convincing victory.

Greene totaled 98 yards rushing and two scores, while adding 57 passing yards. Doege was solid with 259 yards on 22 completions and three touchdowns. Nine different receivers caught passes for the Mountaineers with Ryan leading the way with 77 yards.

Linebacker Josh Chandler-Semedo controlled the defensive side of the ball with five tackles, while defensive back Alonzo Addae added four tackles, one TFL and one breakup in the win.

Final totals showed West Virginia at 87 plays and 29 first downs with a possession time of 35:07. The Mountaineers gained 198 yards on the ground and 344 passing to total 542 yards of total offense.

The Sharks finished with 52 plays, nine first downs and a possession time of 24:53. LIU totaled 35 yards rushing and 60 passing for 95 yards of offense after mustering only seven total yards in the second half.

With the win, West Virginia improved to 22-0 against teams from the FCS and have won 18 straight non-conference games at home, including a 23-1 home mark in its last 24 games out of conference.

MORGANTOWN (SEPT. 18, 2021)

West Virginia played host to longtime rival Virginia Tech for the first time since 2005, breaking a three-game losing streak to the Hokies with a thrilling, 27-21 victory in a sold-out Milan Puskar Stadium.

In a game that used to be a yearly occurrence before conference realignment, Virginia Tech and West Virginia reminded the college football world of what rivalries used to be about as many have ended in recent years.

The 53rd edition of this rivalry brought back memories of how passionate and well-played this series once was, educating a new generation of players from both schools.

West Virginia started fast, putting the home crowd into a frenzy. Tailback Leddie Brown broke loose for an 80-yard touchdown run on WVU's second play from scrimmage and a 7-0 lead just 18 seconds into the contest.

After a three-and-out by the Virginia Tech offense, West Virginia struck again, when quarterback Jarret Doege threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton, giving the Mountaineers a 14-0 advantage.

However, the Hokies struck back before the end of the first quarter with a 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Braxton Burmeister to Tayvion Robinson for 21 combined points in the quarter.

West Virginia controlled much of the second quarter, outscoring the Hokies, 10-0. When Virginia Tech did get close, the Mountaineer defense stiffened to force a Tech field goal, which was missed right before halftime.

The Mountaineers got their points from a 16-yard touchdown pass from Doege to receiver Sam James at the 7:44 mark and a 21-yard field goal by kicker Casey Legg with 1:41 left in the half. By keeping the Hokies off the board in the second, WVU held a 24-7 lead at the break.

To start the third quarter, West Virginia reeled off a 12-play drive that consumed 6:38 off the clock and ended with a 44-yard field goal from Legg, which upped the WVU margin to 27-7.

Virginia Tech answered with just one second left in the third quarter as Raheem Blackshear rushed in from 20 yards out, cutting the Hokie deficit to 27-14 and setting the stage for the fourth-quarter fireworks.

With West Virginia's offense unable to move the ball, the Mountaineer defense kept turning Virginia Tech away, even after a WVU fumble in Mountaineer territory. Tech broke through with 3:10 left in the game on a 29-yard pass from Burmeister to Jalen Holston, which closed the gap to 27-21.

Trying to run out the final three minutes in the game, the WVU offense made a crucial mistake by throwing an interception, which was returned to the 17-yard line. Suddenly faced with possibly losing the game after controlling the lead for the previous 58 minutes, the Mountaineer defense came up with a game-saving stand.

Tech got to first-and-goal from the 3, but two running plays for 1 yard and two incomplete passes properly covered by the Mountaineer secondary gave WVU the win in dramatic fashion.

The series record now stands at 29-23-1 in favor of West Virginia. With the victory, the Black Diamond Trophy returned to Morgantown for the first time since 2003 and college football was reminded how great rivalry games truly are.

Two heavyweight defenses dominated the action in front of an ABC primetime national audience as No. 4/3 Oklahoma used a last-second field goal to defeat visiting West Virginia, 16-13, at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium.

A crowd of 84,353 watched the defensive battle as big offensive plays were mixed in with stingy defensive play in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

West Virginia started the game with perhaps its most impressive drive of the season to date. The Mountaineers controlled the clock for 9:07 and ran 17 plays in the 75-yard scoring drive. WVU converted three third-down attempts and one fourth down before backup quarterback Garrett Greene ran in from 2 yards out for a 7-0 lead.

Starting its first drive at the 5:46 mark of the first quarter, Oklahoma answered the WVU score with a seven-play, 67-yard drive and tied the game when quarterback Spencer Rattler connected with tight end Austin Stogner for a 5-yard scoring toss.

With each team scoring on its first possession, it looked like a high scoring affair was in store, but both defenses took over, making it hard for either offense to put points on the board.

The next score came as the first half ended, when West Virginia took a 10-7 lead at halftime behind a nine-play, 41-yard drive that resulted in a 25-yard Casey Legg field goal.

Just as it answered the first West Virginia score, Oklahoma responded to the Mountaineer field goal in the opening drive of the third quarter. A 10-play, 64-yard drive, ended with a 28-yard Gabe Brkic field goal and tied the game at 10-10 with 11:20 left in the quarter.

The advantage went back to West Virginia with 5:15 left in the third. Legg added his second field goal, this one from 21 yards away for a 13-10 lead. The Mountaineers had to settle for the field goal after an apparent touchdown was wiped away by a false start penalty.

The lead held until the 8:52 mark of the fourth quarter, when the Sooners tied the game with a 35-yard Brkic field goal. Much like WVU's drive to start the game, the Sooners controlled the clock for 8:11 in the drive and ran 16 plays.

It appeared as if West Virginia was going to retake the lead after driving from its own 25 to the OU 28-yard line. However, the next two plays killed the drive and ended any chance of a Mountaineer upset.

From the OU 28, an illegal snap penalty backed the Mountaineers up 5 yards before a bad snap past quarterback Jarret Doege resulted in a 21-yard loss and ended the drive.

Oklahoma took over at its own 8-yard line with 3:39 remaining and proceeded to run out the clock with a 14-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 30-yard, game-winning field goal from Brkic. The Sooners only reached third down once in the drive, as they used positive yardage plays on first and second down to get into field goal range.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 47 yards rushing and 179 passing for 226 yards of total offense. Oklahoma finished with 57 yards on the ground and 256 through the air for 313 yards of offense. West Virginia controlled the ball for six minutes more than the Sooners, but Oklahoma converted just enough big plays down the stretch, combined with WVU miscues, to secure the victory.

MORGANTOWN (OCT. 2, 2021)

Texas Tech built up a 17-point halftime lead and then used a last minute field goal to defeat West Virginia, 23-20 at Milan Puskar Stadium.

In front of a Homecoming crowd of 54,090 and on the day that West Virginia University retired the No. 90 of all-time great Darryl Talley, the Mountaineers started slow in the first half, and the Red Raiders took full advantage.

By scoring the game's first 17 points, Texas Tech accounted for 98 more yards than the Mountaineers, ran 17 more plays and kept the ball more than three minutes longer as the WVU defense could not get off the field.

Texas Tech quarterback Henry Colombi was intercepted on the first possession, but made up for it on the second by leading a 10-play, 58-yard scoring drive which resulted in a 7-0 lead at the 4:46 mark of the first quarter.

Before the quarter ended, Texas Tech upped its margin to 14-0, when tailback SaRodorick Thompson scored his second touchdown in the quarter, both coming on 1-yard runs.

With the West Virginia offense still showing no signs of life, a 33-yard field goal by Tech kicker Jonathan Garibay as time expired extended the Red Raider advantage to 17-0 at the break.

The third quarter presented a much different West Virginia team, as the Mountaineers came out firing, erasing the 17-point deficit in the quarter.

First, quarterback Jarrett Doege engineered a 75-yard scoring drive to start the second half, which was highlight by a 40-yard completion to receiver Sam James. Running back Leddie Brown ended the drive with a 4-yard run.

West Virginia's second possession of the half resulted in a 36-yard field goal by kicker Casey Legg. Doege completed passes of 10, 21 and nine yards to get the Mountaineers into Legg's field goal range.

The Mountaineers got three possessions in the third quarter and scored on all three. The third score tied the game at 17-17 as Doege hit Isaiah Esdale for a 14-yard scoring pass. The score was set up by Esdale's 55-yard reception four plays earlier in the drive.

The Red Raiders regained the lead at the 11:46 mark of the fourth quarter, when Garibay connected on a 29-yard field goal, ending a 62-yard drive. Colombi connected on a 46-yard completion to Loic Fouonji to put the visitors in field goal range.

West Virginia bounced back with a 13-play drive that reached the Tech six yard line, but the Mountaineers were not able to get in the end zone and settled for a 28-yard Legg field goal, knotting the score at 20-20 with 4:31 left to play.

With West Virginia unable to get in the end zone on its previous possession, Texas Tech's last drive proved to be the game winner. The big play was a 42-yard completion from Colombi to Kaylon Geiger to get the Red Raiders in field goal range. Garibay's third field goal, this one from 32-yards out, split the uprights with 18 seconds left in the game.

West Virginia finished with 94 yards rushing and 330 passing to total 424 yards of offense. Texas Tech's final numbers stood at 80 yards rushing and 266 passing for 346 total yards.

After losing five straight to West Virginia, the Red Raiders have now won three straight against the Mountaineers, including two-straight in Morgantown.

Behind quarterback Gerry Bohanon's 336 yards passing and four touchdowns, Baylor defeated West Virginia, 45-20, at McLane Stadium.

Receiver Tyquan Thornton was Bohanon's favorite target with eight catches for 187 yards and two scores.

It didn't take long for Bohanon and Thornton to make an impact on the game. Baylor's second play from scrimmage, and Bohanon's first pass, was a 75-yard touchdown to Thornton that forced the Mountaineers to play catch-up 41 seconds into the game.

The Mountaineers had an answer on their first possession, as quarterback Jarret Doege hit receiver Sam James for a 53-yard play, setting up Doege's 12-yard touchdown pass to receiver Sean Ryan. The drive covered 75 yards in six plays and tied the score at 7-7 with 12:41 left in the first quarter.

But West Virginia's big plays were few and far between after that first drive as the rest of the day belonged to the Bears.

With two more scores in the first quarter, Baylor jumped out to a 21-7 lead. A 10-yard touchdown catch by Ben Sims ended a 75-yard drive. A Baylor interception of Doege set up Thornton's 22-yard catch and a 1-yard plunge by Bohanon.

The lead was extended to 28-7 on Thornton's second touchdown reception. The 11-yard scoring play was set up by a 58-yard completion from Bohanon to Drew Estrada.

The Mountaineers got on the board one more time before halftime at the 6:10 mark, when kicker Casey Legg connected on a 29-yard field goal. Doege completed passes of 24, 8, 14 and 10 yards to get Legg into field goal range.

Unfortunately, second-half action did not turn in favor of West Virginia. Baylor outscored the Mountaineers 14-3 in the third quarter to finish off any hope of a WVU comeback.

West Virginia struck first in the third with a 27-yard field goal by Legg, closing the gap to 28-13. After WVU's failed onside kick, Baylor added a second touchdown reception to Sims followed by a 31-yard touchdown run from tailback Abram Smith to take a commanding 42-13 lead. Smith accounted for 51 of the 69 yards in the scoring drive.

Fourth-quarter action saw Baylor's Isaiah Hankins convert on a 45-yard field goal for a 45-13 Bear lead with 10:06 left. The Mountaineers put together a final drive in the fourth behind backup quarterback, Garrett Greene, who engineered a 12-play, 85-yard drive. Rushing for 38 yards and completing a 25-yard pass to Winston Wright Jr., Greene closed the scoring with a 13-yard run with 4:13 left.

Wright Jr. and James combined for 156 yards receiving to lead the Mountaineer attack. For Baylor, Bohanon and Thornton were pretty much all it needed, but Smith did finish with 87 yards rushing.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 90 yards rushing and 272 passing for 362 offensive yards. Baylor came in at 171 yards on the ground and 354 through the air to finish with 525 yards of total offense.

Going into the game, West Virginia had won four of the last five games against Baylor, but this win now gives the Bears a winning edge in two of the last three games, including two straight at home.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS (OCT. 23, 2020)

West Virginia broke a seven-game, regular-season, road losing streak with a much-needed, 29-17 victory over TCU at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

A balanced offensive attack coupled with an opportunistic defense that shut out the Horned Frogs in second-half action propelled the Mountaineers to the road win and kept their bowl chances alive for the 2021 season.

The game didn't exactly start out the way West Virginia had hoped as TCU jumped on the Mountaineers right away. Return man Derius Davis took Evan Staley's opening kick 100 yards to the house for a 7-0 TCU lead before most fans even found their seats.

To West Virginia's credit, the Mountaineers stayed composed, didn't panic and answered the kickoff return with a 79-yard drive and a 27-yard field goal by kicker Casey Legg. The big play in the drive was a 44-yard completion from quarterback Jarret Doege to receiver Sean Ryan.

The Mountaineers then neutralized the kick return by grabbing the lead with just seven seconds left in the first quarter on Leddie Brown's 5-yard run, which ended an impressive 94-yard drive.

West Virginia then added to its advantage at the 9:07 mark of the second quarter with a 38-yard Legg field goal. The kick was set up by a 67-yard run by backup quarterback Garrett Greene.

The Horned Frogs regained the lead at the 5:17 mark, when quarterback Max Duggan connected with Taye Barber for a 5-yard touchdown.

Trailing 14-13, West Virginia regained the lead for good with 2:51 left in the half, when Brown marched in for his second rushing touchdown in the game. Doege's 40-yard completion to Winston Wright Jr., set up the go-ahead score. The Horned Frogs added a Griffin Kell field goal just before halftime, cutting the WVU lead to 20-17.

Darryl Porter Jr.'s third-quarter interception and 43-yard return thwarted a TCU drive and resulted in a 49-yard field goal by Legg, giving the Mountaineers a 23-17 advantage going into the final quarter.

Charles Woods then collected WVU's second interception in the half and returned it 32 yards to set up the offense at the TCU 15. Three plays later, Brown tacked on rushing touchdown No. 3 with a 3-yard score, as he accounted for all 15 yards in the drive on three carries.

Leading 29-17, the Mountaineer defense closed the fourth quarter with one more turnover on Woods' fumble recovery to secure the WVU win.

Brown finished with 111 yards rushing and the three scores to pace the Mountaineers. Linebacker Josh Chandler-Semedo topped the defense with 11 tackles, including nine solo stops.

Duggan led TCU with 244 yards passing, and his favorite target, Quentin Johnson, bested all receivers with five catches for 113 yards. Dee Winters led the Horned Frog defense with 12 tackles.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 229 yards rushing and 258 passing for a balanced 487 yards of total offense. The Horned Frogs turned in 149 yards on the ground and 244 in the air for 393 total yards.

West Virginia's last regular-season road win was at TCU in 2019 as the Mountaineers have now won four straight against the Horned Frogs and lead the overall series, 7-4.

Led by a WVU career-high 370 yards passing and three-touchdown performance from quarterback Jarret Doege, West Virginia pulled off a 38-31 upset of No. 22/23 Iowa State at Milan Puskar Stadium.

It was a big day offensively for the Mountaineers. Receivers Bryce Ford-Wheaton and Winston Wright Jr., each hauled in 100-plus yards receiving with touchdown receptions to go along with 109 yards rushing and two scores from running back Leddie Brown to lead the offensive attack.

The Mountaineers needed every yard of offense and all the points they could get to neutralize a potent Cyclone attack. The Iowa State offense started strong, but West Virginia was able to counter in a combined 28-point first quarter.

On ISU's third play from scrimmage, running back Breece Hall broke loose for a 70-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead for the visitors. West Virginia answered with a 75-yard drive to tie the game at 7-7 with 7:05 left in the opening quarter.

Iowa State quarterback Brock Purdy then connected on a 68-yard aerial strike to Tarique Milton for a 14-7 lead. The Cyclones hit the Mountaineers with two explosive scoring plays of 70 and 68 yards to grab the early lead.

Like they did on the first score, the Mountaineers answered with another 75-yard drive and tied the game at 14-14, when Doege connected with Ford-Wheaton for a 20-yard reception.

The defenses then settled in as each team could only muster field goals in the second quarter to put the halftime score at 17-17.

Second-half action saw the Cyclones win the third quarter, and the Mountaineers take the fourth. A 24-yard interception return for a score by Jake Hummel along with a 1-yard run by Purdy enabled Iowa State to take a 31-24 lead into the final stanza.

Third-quarter scoring for West Virginia came on Ford-Wheaton's impressive, 23-yard catch of a Doege pass in the back of the end zone. A stretched out Ford-Wheaton drug a toe in-bounds for one of the best catches of the college football season.

Trailing 31-24 in the fourth, West Virginia used yet another 75-yard drive to tie the game on Wright Jr's. 22-yard touchdown catch on fourth down.

The Mountaineers took the lead with 9:20 left to play with an 85-yard drive that was highlighted by a 20-yard rush from Brown and a 45-yard catch by Ford-Wheaton. On the drive's sixth play, Brown rushed in from 2-yards out, giving WVU its first lead of the game.

Iowa State had two possessions left in the fourth and got down to the WVU 2-yard line, but Hall's fumble was recovered in the end zone by the Alonzo Addae. One last Cyclone drive started with 3:42 remaining and reached the WVU 25-yard line, but the Mountaineer defense came up with a stop on fourth down as time expired to preserve the upset win.

Aside from the offensive performances, Josh Chandler-Semedo led the Mountaineer defense with 12 tackles and one sack.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 122 yards rushing and 370 passing to total 492 yards of offense. Iowa State finished with an impressive 239 rushing and 185 passing for 424 total yards.

The win broke WVU's three-game losing streak to Iowa State, and the Mountaineers lead the all-time series 6-4.

MORGANTOWN (NOV. 6, 2021)

Oklahoma State used a dominating and attacking defense to post a 24-3 road victory at West Virginia in front of 50,109 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

West Virginia's afternoon started on the right track as the Mountaineers took the opening kickoff 64 yards in 11 plays and came away with a 30-yard field goal from Casey Legg. The big play in the drive was a 32-yard reception by receiver Sam James.

The Mountaineers settled for the field goal when they could not convert on a third-and-2 from the Oklahoma State 11-yard line. This would prove to be a bit of foreshadowing as the Cowboy defense started to settle in and take control of the game.

West Virginia's 3-0 lead lasted until the 8:20 mark of the second quarter. The Cowboys took the lead for good on quarterback Spencer Sanders' 6-yard touchdown pass to receiver Tay Martin.

The Cowboys extended their lead to 10-3 at halftime on a 34-yard field goal from kicker Tanner Brown to end a 53-yard drive.

Even though the halftime stats showed West Virginia with only 61 yards of total offense, WVU was still very much in the game thanks to the Mountaineer defense creating its own havoc on the Oklahoma State offense.

The one-score difference stayed until the 7:13 mark of the third quarter, when West Virginia's Graeson Malashevich muffed an OSU punt that was recovered by the Cowboys at the WVU 24-yard line.

Four plays later, Sanders connected again with Martin, this time for a 12-yard scoring toss to give the Cowboys a 17-3 advantage. With the dominance of the Oklahoma State defense, the game was basically over after the muffed punt.

Oklahoma State closed the scoring with 13:10 left in the game on a 13-yard touchdown run from running back Jaylen Warren for a 24-3 lead. The scoring drive also featured a 28-yard completion from Sanders to receiver Jaden Bray, which turned out to be OSU's longest play from scrimmage in the game.

West Virginia quarterbacks were sacked eight times as the Cowboy defense recorded 12 tackles for loss. For the Mountaineer offense, quarterback Jarret Doege finished with 109 yards passing, with 46 of those yards going to receiver Sam James. The struggling WVU running game got 25 yards from Tony Mathis Jr. and 24 yards from Leddie Brown.

The Mountaineer defense turned in a solid effort behind Josh Chandler-Semedo's nine tackles and six each from Alonzo Addae and Sean Mahone.

OSU got 182 yards passing and two touchdowns from Sanders, with both scoring receptions going to Martin who finished with 63 yards receiving. Warren carried 16 times for 78 yards, Malcolm Rodriguez turned in nine tackles and Devin Harper added eight stops, three TFLs, including one sack.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 17 yards rushing and 116 passing for 133 yards of offense. OSU totaled 103 yards on the ground and 182 through the air to finish with 285 yards.

The game featured the retirement of legendary WVU quarterback Major Harris' No. 9 with a special celebration at the end of the first quarter. While it was an historical day for WVU legends, the current Mountaineers saw their losing streak to Oklahoma State extended to seven games.

MANHATTAN, KAN. (NOV. 13, 2021)

Kansas State ended a five-game losing streak to West Virginia by defeating the Mountaineers, 34-17, in front of 43,932 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

It didn't take long for the Wildcats to seize the momentum as West Virginia quarterback Jarret Doege threw an interception on the game's second play from scrimmage. Doege's pass was on the mark, but it went through the hands of Winston Wright Jr. and was intercepted by Russ Yeast. Six plays later, a Joe Ervin 2-yard touchdown run put the Wildcats up, 7-0.

Kansas State increased its advantage to 14-0 with 3:46 left in the first quarter, when Ty Bowman blocked a Tyler Sumpter punt that teammate Marvin Martin recovered and returned 7 yards for a touchdown. It was West Virginia's first blocked punt for a touchdown allowed since 1998.

The Wildcats took a 17-0 lead at the 2:52 mark of the second quarter, when kicker Chris Tennant connected on a 32-yard field goal.

However, West Virginia got on the board with 33 seconds left before halftime as kicker Casey Legg converted a 39-yard field goal. The kick was set up by two Doege completions of 17 yards to Bryce Ford-Wheaton and Sean Ryan, as the scoring drive covered 53 yards in nine plays.

Kansas State made good use of the opening possession of the third quarter thanks to a 64-yard kickoff return from Malik Knowles. Starting at the WVU 33-yard line, quarterback Skylar Thompson engineered an eight-play, 33-yard drive that ended with his 4-yard scoring toss to Sammy Wheeler.

Trailing 24-3, West Virginia scored its first touchdown with 6:02 left in the third on Doege's 13-yard completion to receiver Reese Smith. The big play in the drive was Leddie Brown's 20-yard run, and the scoring catch was the first of Smith's career.

The fourth quarter saw West Virginia pull within seven points at 24-17, when Doege hit Wright Jr. for a 3-yard score on fourth down. Doege completed passes of 32 and 20 yards to put the Mountaineers in scoring position.

Despite what seemed like Kansas State dominance, it was still a winnable game for the Mountaineers until the Wildcats put the game away on the ensuing drive.

Faced with a fourth-and-8 from the WVU 39, the Wildcats elected not to punt, and Thompson hit Wheeler for a 35-yard completion. Running back Deuce Vaughn scored on the next play putting K-State up 31-17 with 7:22 remaining.

After a West Virginia fumble, Kansas State closed the scoring with a 25-yard Tennant field goal with just 1:59 left on the clock.

The Wildcats got 121 yards rushing from Vaughn to lead their attack and basically played mistake- free football on both sides of the ball. West Virginia suffered through three turnovers that turned out to be too many to overcome. Doege led West Virginia with 268 yards passing and two touchdowns, while Brown finished with 85 yards rushing.

Final team numbers showed the Mountaineers with 77 yards rushing and 268 passing to end with 345 yards of offense. Kansas State managed 161 yards on the ground and 138 through the air for 299 total yards.

The win improved K-State to 7-3 on the year, while the Mountaineers dropped to 4-6 and must win their final two games of the season to become bowl eligible.

MORGANTOWN (NOV. 20, 2021)

Behind 290 yards passing from quarterback Jarret Doege and 158 yards rushing from running back Leddie Brown, West Virginia downed Texas, 31-23, before 48,755 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Mountaineers ran 29 more plays than the Longhorns and controlled the ball more than 17 minutes longer in snapping a two-game losing streak to the visitors from Austin.

West Virginia scored first, then controlled the football and never trailed in the game. By doing so, the Mountaineers kept their bowl hopes alive with their fifth win of the season.

The game's opening possession saw the Mountaineers drive 75 yards, and Doege threw the first of three touchdowns, as receiver Sam James caught a 20-yard strike for a 7-0 lead.

The seven-point, first-quarter advantage held into the second quarter, when West Virginia advanced to a 14-0 lead on Doege's 14-yard scoring toss to receiver Winston Wright Jr.

At the 8:34 mark of the second quarter, Texas got on the board with a 49-yard run by Keilan Robinson. The scoring drive traveled 79 yards in six plays and cut WVU's lead to 14-7.

However, West Virginia answered with an 82-yard, 5:55 drive that ended with Brown's 2-yard touchdown run for a 21-7 advantage.

Texas added a 50-yard field goal by Cameron Dicker just before the half, cutting the home team's lead to 21-10.

Halftime statistics showed West Virginia's dominance. The Mountaineers outgained the Longhorns, 301-135, and controlled the football nearly 13 minutes longer.

The West Virginia defense came up with an important stop on Texas' opening drive of the second half, but the Longhorns capitalized on their second drive, when quarterback Hudson Card connected with Xavier Worthy for a 52-yard touchdown strike at the 5:40 mark. Despite losing the statistical battle, suddenly Texas had the momentum and trailed by only four points at 21-17.

However, West Virginia didn't flinch, answering Texas with a nine-play, 75-yard drive that saw Doege connect with Sean Ryan for a 7-yard scoring pass. Brown had big runs of 26 and 18 yards on the drive and accounted for 51 of the 75 yards. Doege's 19-yard completion to Wright Jr. on third-and-18, not only kept the drive alive, but might have been one of WVU's most important pass completions of the season.

Fourth-quarter action saw Texas again come within striking distance, when the Longhorns completed a 72-yard touchdown drive in eight plays, The two-point conversion failed, putting the score in favor of WVU, 28-23, with 12:25 left to play.

The Mountaineers then embarked on a 14-play drive that took 5:22 off the clock and ended with a 45-yard field goal from kicker Casey Legg. Leading, 31-23, WVU defensive back Sean Mahone intercepted Casey Thompson to end the last real scoring threat by the Longhorns.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 158 yards rushing and 301 passing for 459 yards of total offense. Texas finished with 203 yards rushing on the strength of Robinson's 111 yards, while Card and Thompson combined for 152 yards passing to total 355 yards of offense.

The win improved West Virginia to 5-6, while Texas fell out of bowl eligibility at 4-7.

LAWRENCE, KAN. (NOV. 27, 2021)

West Virginia rode the strength of two 100-yard rushers to defeat Kansas, 34-28, at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium.

Leddie Brown led the way with 156 yards rushing on 19 carries for an 8.2 yards per carry average. Brown was joined by teammate Tony Mathis Jr., who logged 118 yards on 22 carries for a 5.4 yards per carry average. The two running backs fueled a Mountaineer offensive attack that averaged 6.1 yards per play on the night.

West Virginia's offense had to wait to get on the field early on, as Kansas took the game's opening possession 47 yards in 3:37 and came away with a 46-yard Jacob Borcila field goal.

A West Virginia fumble on its first drive did not hurt the Mountaineers after a strong defensive stand. On its second possession, West Virginia took the lead, when quarterback Jarret Doege connected on a 14-yard touchdown pass to receiver Winston Wright Jr.

Trailing 7-3, the Jayhawks added a second Borcila field goal in the first quarter, cutting their deficit to 7-6 before the two teams combined for 21 points in the second quarter.

Doege connected with Wright Jr., again for 14 yards at the 10:05 mark, ending a 75-yard drive and upping WVU's advantage to 14-6.

Kansas hit big plays of 20 and 36 yards before quarterback Jalon Daniels found receiver Jared Casey for an 8-yard touchdown reception, putting the score at 14-13 with 7:24 left in the first half.

The Mountaineers answered with a touchdown just before halftime. Doege's third touchdown of the half went to receiver Sam James with 12 seconds left, giving WVU a 21-13 margin at the intermission.

Third-quarter action saw the two teams combine for 18 points as Kansas struck first to tie the game, when Gavin Potter intercepted Doege and returned it 28 yards for a pick six. The Jayhawks' two-point conversion was successful and suddenly WVU's eight-point lead was erased at the 12:30 mark of the third quarter.

With the game tied 21-21, West Virginia took control on the strength of its running attack. Brown's 44-yard touchdown run put the Mountaineers back in front, 28-21.

The Mountaineer defense then held the Jayhawks on fourth-and-1, setting the offense up in good field position. Nine plays later, kicker Casey Legg added a 38-yard field goal to give the Mountaineers a 31-21 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

WVU linebacker Josh Chandler-Semedo intercepted Daniels twice in the end zone, while Legg added a 37-yard field goal between the two interceptions, putting the Mountaineer advantage at 34-21.

With time winding down, the Jayhawks added a 3-yard run from Daniels to pull within six, but it was wasn't enough as WVU grabbled its sixth victory of 2021.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with a powerful run game that totaled 261 yards and one touchdown. The passing game finished with 175 yards for 436 yards of offense. Chandler-Semedo's defensive line for the night included eight tackles, two interceptions, one TFL and one forced fumble.

Kansas finished with 87 yards on the ground and 249 passing for 336 total yards.

With the win, the Mountaineers qualified for their second straight bowl under Neal Brown and now lead the all-time series with Kansas by a 10-1 count.

Minnesota used a ball-control offense and a stingy defense to defeat West Virginia, 18-6, in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl at Chase Field in Phoenix.

The Golden Gopher offense controlled the football for 38:29 compared to West Virginia's 21:31, while the Minnesota defense contained the Mountaineers, holding WVU to just 206 total yards.

Minnesota finished the game with two 100-yard rushers in Ky Thomas (144) and Mar'Keise Irving (129), as the Golden Gophers complied 183 more rushing yards than the Mountaineers.

A Minnesota fumble and a missed field goal by Gopher kicker Matthew Trickett kept the game scoreless after one quarter of play.

Second-quarter play provided the most spark in the game as the two teams combined for 21 points. Minnesota opened the scoring on a 2-yard rush from offensive lineman Daniel Faalele, who checked in as an eligible receiver. Instead of kicking the extra point, Minnesota coach P.J. Fleck turned to his bag of tricks for a Brock Annexstad two-point conversion run, giving the Gophers an 8-0 lead with 14:19 left in the first half.

West Virginia matched the touchdown on its next possession as quarterback Jarret Doege engineered a 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive that ended with his 1-yard run on fourth down. The drive consumed 5:31, but the Mountaineers still trailed by two, when they failed to match Minnesota's two-point conversion.

Leading 8-6, Minnesota took a 15-6 lead at the intermission, when Thomas rushed in from 5-yards out with 2:14 left. The 61-yard drive was highlighted by Thomas' 50-yard run as he accounted for 57 of the 61 yards in the drive.

A total of three points were scored in the second half, and they came off the foot of Trickett, who connected on a 49-yard attempt at the 5:48 mark of the third quarter to end an eight-play, 39-yard drive in 5:53.

West Virginia's offense could not muster any scoring threats on the Minnesota defense in the second half, as the Mountaineers ran only 20 plays on five possessions with the fifth drive consisting of just one play as time expired to end the game.

Doege finished his WVU career with 140 yards passing, while running back Tony Mathis Jr. led the Mountaineer ground game with 56 yards rushing. Receiver Sam James turned in 40 yards on three catches, and linebacker Lance Dixon topped the Mountaineer defensive effort with 11 tackles.

Beside the rushing of Thomas and Irving, the Minnesota offense got 109 yards passing from quarterback Tanner Morgan and 58 yards from receiver from Dylan Wright on just two catches. The Golden Gopher defense was led by Tyler Nubin with eight tackles and one sack.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 66 yards rushing and 140 passing to total 206 yards of offense. Minnesota's final numbers included 249 yards on the ground and 109 through the air for 358 total yards.

The game was the first meeting between the two schools, and the win ended Minnesota's season at 9-4. The Mountaineers closed the 2021 campaign at 6-7 and now stand at 16-23 all-time in bowl games after making their 18th bowl appearance in the last 20 years.

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

E. GORDON GEE, J.D., ED.D

Dr. E. Gordon Gee is one of America's most prominent higher education leaders, having helmed universities for more than three decades. In 2009, Time magazine named him one of the top 10 university presidents in the United States. Recently, the website Great Value Colleges named him the nation's top university president.

In 2014, Gee returned to West Virginia University, where his career as a university president began. His leadership goals include putting students first, advancing the university's research agenda, partnering with West Virginia communities and making sure that 1.8 million West Virginians know in their hearts and minds that West Virginia University is their university.

Born in Vernal, Utah, Gee graduated from the University of Utah with an honors degree in history and earned his J.D. and Ed.D. degrees from Columbia University. He clerked under Chief Justice David T. Lewis of the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals before being named a judicial fellow and staff assistant to the U.S. Supreme Court. In this role, he worked for Chief Justice Warren Burger on administrative and legal problems of the Court and federal judiciary. Gee returned to Utah as an associate professor and associate dean in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University and was granted full professorship in 1978. One year later, he became dean of the West Virginia University College of Law, and, in 1980, was named West Virginia University president. He served in that role until 1985.
He went on to lead the University of Colorado (1985-1990), Brown University (1998-2000) and Vanderbilt University (2001-2007). He served as president of The Ohio State University from 1990 to 1997 and again from 2007 to 2013.

Gee has been a member of several education-governance organizations and committees including the Big 12 Conference Council of Presidents, the Business-Higher Education Forum and the American Association of Universities. He was chair of the American Council on Education's Commission on Higher Education Attainment and served as co-chair of the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities' Energy Advisory Committee. In 2009, Gee was invited to join the International Advisory Board of King Adbulaziz University in Saudi Arabia, and he currently serves on the Board of the Royal University for Women in Bahrain.

Active in many national professional and service organizations during his tenures, he has served on the boards for the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, Inc., Limited Brands and the National 4-H Council.
In 2011, Gee was appointed to serve as secretary on the Board of Directors of Ohio's economic development program, JobsOhio.

In 2011-2012, he was asked by Governor Kasich to chair the Ohio Higher Education Capital Funding Collaborative and the Ohio Higher Education Funding Commission. In March 2015, he was elected to the board of directors of the American Council on Education, the nation's largest higher education organization. And he served as chair of the Big 12 Board of Directors Executive Committee for the 2017-18 year. Gee presently serves on the council of presidents for the Southern University Research Association and as a member of the Presidents' Alliance on Higher Education and Immigration.

Gee has received many honorary degrees, awards, fellowships and recognitions. He is a fellow of the prestigious American Association for the Advancement of Science, the world's largest science organization. In 1994, Gee received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Utah, as well as from Teachers College of Columbia University. In 2013, he received the ACE Council of Fellows/Fidelity Investments Mentor Award and received the Outstanding Academic Leader of the Year Award on behalf of Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Gee received the Elite Leadership Academy's 2020 IMPACT Award, which honors exceptional leaders for self-knowledge, a clear vision and active coaching and mentoring relationships.

A Distinguished Eagle Scout and lifelong Scouting supporter, he has received the Silver Buffalo Award, Scouting's top honor for adult volunteers. He is the co-author of more than a dozen books, including his two most recent, "Land-Grant Universities for the Future" and "What's Public About Public Higher Ed?"

Gee's fiancée is Laurie Erickson, leader of the Erickson Foundation. Gee's daughter, Rebekah, is clinical associate professor in obstetrics and gynecology at LSU Health New Orleans School of Medicine and CEO and Founder of Nest Health. Dr. Rebekah Gee is married to David Patrón and they have five children.

E. GORDON GEE AND FIANCÉE LAURIE ERICKSON

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS/ASSOCIATE VP
SHANE LYONS

There's a reason Shane Lyons was named NACDA Athletics Director of the Year in 2021, it's because he spends endless hours daily for the betterment of more than 500 student-athletes and their day-to-day needs in order to help them succeed in the classroom and in competition.

His open lines of communications have made him a popular role model for WVU student-athletes and coaches. His honest, fair and caring approach has led to success on and off the field. Whether it's regularly scheduled meetings with the student-athletes or his open-door office policy, Lyons has his finger on the pulse of his department.

In moving his department forward, his Climbing Higher facilities master plan keeps West Virginia a strong Power 5 institution and positions his department for growth and continued success. The Time2Climb fundraising membership drive he initiated in 2021 is getting new donors involved in Mountaineer athletics and helping the Mountaineer Athletic Club grow and plan for the future.

In 2019, Lyons commissioned and announced an economic impact study that showed Mountaineer Athletics produced more than $300 million to the state's economy and more than $78 million to the local economy. And with the local economy in mind, Lyons's proudly saw the formal opening of a new $45 million aquatic and track facility that not only benefits WVU, but also local schools and the entire community. Already, the facility has brought thousands of guests to Morgantown as it has hosted such events as the Big 12 swimming and diving championships as well as the NCAA zone diving competitions.

When he stresses academics, he means it as a department-high 361 student-athletes made the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and WVU's overall department GPA was 3.22 last year. WVU featured 493 athletes with a 3.00 GPA and 168 with a 4.0 for the 2022 spring semester.

Also, a Clinical and Sport Psychology unit that he formed for better student-athlete mental health, creating the department's first Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee and first-class nutrition program for all 18 varsity teams further confirms his belief and commitment to helping the total student-athlete well-being and advancement.

Ask him and he'll tell you it's not his department, but West Virginia's department, and part of his job is to develop our country's future leaders. He cares, and the proof is in what he has accomplished for Mountaineer athletics in his seven years on the job.

Long considered one of the nation's top collegiate leaders, his success and work ethic has also brought national exposure to West Virginia University as Lyons is helping shape the future of college athletics with his presence on several national and prestigious committees. For 2022-23, he will continue to be a member of the NCAA Transformation Committee that is rewriting NCAA policies and procedures and forming the organization's guidelines for decades to come. He has also been a member of the NCAA Division I Council for several years and will again chair that distinguished committee in 2023.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, he chaired the all-important Football Oversight Committee and played a key role in the sport overcoming, adjusting and managing the difficulties to complete the 2020 season. There's no doubt that Lyons' even-keeled demeanor, ability to think outside the box and solve problems played a major role in having a football season in 2020.

Additionally, Lyons serves on the NCAA Working Group on Transfers, the Football Competition Committee and the NCAA Wrestling Academics Enhancement Working Group. Making a difference and enhancing the student-athlete experience on these committees is his No. 1 objective.

His work with WVU President E. Gordon Gee's senior leadership team and the Big 12 Conference has brought additional respect and positive exposure to his department and the University. He's been a member of the Big 12 Administration Committee, Finance and Budget Committee and the Game Management and Officiating Subcommittee, while chairing the Big 12 athletic directors committee in 2018.

Lyons came to West Virginia after spending more than three years as the deputy director of athletics and chief operating officer at Alabama. He worked closely on day-to-day strategic leadership, the direction of the overall Crimson Tide Athletic program and was the direct second in charge.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in November 2011, Lyons spent 10 years as an associate commissioner at the Atlantic Coast Conference. At the ACC, Lyons focused on conference-wide compliance and academic initiatives, providing direct assistance to the conference's presidents, chancellors and athletics directors in dealing with NCAA regulatory matters.

In addition, he served as the ACC's human resource manager and was responsible for the administration, negotiation and mediation of the employee benefits program and managing the conference's organizational policies and procedures. He was part of the senior administrative team for ACC events, including the football championship game, the men's basketball tournament and men's and women's NCAA basketball events.

Prior to working at the ACC, Lyons served as associate athletics director for compliance at Big 12 member Texas Tech from 1998 to 2001. During that time, Lyons assumed responsibility for the leadership, administration and implementation of a comprehensive NCAA compliance program with emphasis toward rules education and extensive monitoring systems. He also served as oversight administrator for several of the Red Raiders' athletic teams and had financial and operational supervision of the strength and conditioning, nutritional and sports medicine units.

Before joining Texas Tech, Lyons worked at the NCAA for almost 10 years as a senior membership services representative, where he was responsible for the oversight and coordination of rules and interpretations for the 25 membership service representatives and was the staff liaison to various NCAA standing committees.

Lyons began his career in college athletics in July 1988 as assistant commissioner of the Big South Conference. With the Big South, he was in charge of conference-wide compliance and championships.

A native of Parkersburg, West Virginia, and a graduate of Parkersburg High, Lyons was a standout basketball player for the Big Reds. He earned bachelor's and master's degrees in sport management from WVU in 1987 and 1988, respectively.

Lyons, the University's 12th athletic director, and his wife, Emily, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, have two children: Cameron and Brooke. Cameron is a graduate student-athlete and member of the football team at UNC Charlotte and Brooke is a sophomore at WVU.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Following are some guidelines for covering the 2022 Mountaineers.

Credentials: All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials to cover West Virginia's 2022 home football games must be applied for online at http://www.sportssystems.com/westvirginia at least two weeks prior to the game. Requests submitted the week of the game only will be honored if space permits.

Due to the demand for working credentials, media regularly assigned to cover WVU and the visiting school will receive priority.

All photographers must work outside the 25-yard lines as prescribed by the NCAA; they are not permitted in the bench area extended. Photographers must sign in for field access in the press box prior to each game.

No children (under the age of 16) are allowed on the sidelines for any reason; any children on the sidelines will be removed, along with their guardians.

Any abuse of a working credential to West Virginia football games can result in the media agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of 2022 and possibly the entire 2023 home season.

After The Game: Coach Neal Brown will conduct a postgame news conference in the Milan Puskar Center Team Room. Brown's news conference also can be heard over the press box PA. Select WVU players also will be available in the team room. No media will be granted access to the West Virginia locker room.

During The Week: Coach Neal Brown will meet with the media each Tuesday afternoon at 12:05 p.m. in the Team Room at the Puskar Center. Mountaineer coordinators and select players will be available for interviews each Tuesday from 12:30 – 2 p.m. This is also the best time for players to return calls to out-of-town media. They will be available to return phone calls on Tuesday and Wednesday as class and practice schedules permit. Any special arrangements for player interviews should be made through assistant athletics director/ football communications Mike Montoro at least a day in advance. Players will not be asked to miss class or study hall for interviews and at no time will a player's phone number be given to the media.

No player interviews will be conducted during practice sessions. The practice and interview schedule for preseason camp and game weeks will be announced in August.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS PARKING AREA (RED AND BROWN LOTS)

From I-79: Take the Star City/WVU exit. Cross the Star City Bridge and proceed up Monongahela Boulevard toward the Coliseum. At the Coliseum traffic light, turn left onto Patteson Drive. At the third traffic light, turn right onto University Avenue. Travel approximately ½ mile and make a left toward the WVU Law School. Proceed up the hill where attendants will direct you to the Red Media parking area. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.

From I-68: Take the Pierpont Road exit and follow signs to the stadium. At the second traffic light off the interstate, turn left and travel up Easton Hill. Count two more traffic lights and take the roundabout second exit to the right and turn right on Route 705 and stay on this highway as it becomes Chestnut Ridge Road. Turn left at the sixth traffic light onto Van Voorhis Road, and make another left at the second traffic light onto University Ave. Travel approximately ½ mile and make a left toward the WVU Law School. Proceed up the hill where attendants will direct you to the Red Media area. A shuttle van runs continuously from the media lots to the press box.
